George Eugène Fasnacht, 1900 Mothers of Invention Miléna Santoro, 2002-06-26 Santoro elucidates notoriously difficult works by the four mothers of invention studied Cixous and Hyvrard from France and Gagnon and Brossard from Quebec showing how the rethinking of images associated with femininity and motherhood a disruptive approach to language and a subversive relation to novelistic conventions characterize these writers search for a writing that will best express women's desires and dreams Mothers of Invention situates such ideologically motivated textual practices within the avant garde tradition even as it suggests how women's experimental writings collectively transform our understanding of that tradition Santoro makes clear the shared ethical and aesthetic commitments that nourished a transatlantic community whose contribution to mainstream literature and cultural productions including postmodernism is still being felt today A History of the French Language Urban Holmes, Alexander H. A Grammar of the French Tongue John Perrin, 1806 Subsurface Karen Pinkus, 2023-04-18 A bold new consideration of climate change between narratives of the Earth's layers and policy of the present Long seen as a realm of mystery and possibility the subsurface beneath our feet has taken on all too real import in the era of climate change Can reading narratives of the past that take imaginative leaps under the surface better attune us to our present knowledge of a warming planet In Subsurface Karen Pinkus looks below the surface of texts by Edgar Allan Poe Arthur Conan Doyle George Sand E T A Hoffmann and Jules Verne to find the buried origins of capitalist fantasies in which humans take what they want from the earth Putting such texts into conversation with narrative theory critical theory geology and climate policy she shows that the subsurface has been in our past a place of myth and stories of male voyages down to gain knowledge but it is also now the realm of fossil fuels How do these two modes intertwine A highly original take on evocative terms such as extraction burial fossils deep time and speculative futurity Subsurface questions the certainty of comfortable narrative arcs It asks us to read literature with and against the figure of the geological column with and against fossil fuels and the emissions warming our planet As we see our former selves move into the distance what new modes of imagination might we summon
