Santrock, 2006-11 Driven by learning goals previous editions of this text have been widely adopted for their accurate complete and up to date coverage While maintaining these hallmarks this revision includes increased coverage of adulthood and aging a new Interlude feature on applications and updated research with more 21st century citations than ever before A Topical Approach to Life-span Development John W. Santrock, 2011-12 This is a topically oriented text for the lifespan development course It will allow instructors to focus more on research and to show students how broad concepts of development apply to different stages of life Human Development D. A. Louw, 1998 Essentials of Life-Span Development John Santrock, 2007-08-01 The entire lifespan in 500 pages What's the greatest challenge in teaching the Life Span Development course Covering a lifetime of material in a single term Instructors from across the country have clamored for a streamlined text that captures the core concepts of life span development Essentials of Life Span Development was carefully designed and constructed to deliver these core concepts along with a strong applications focus reflecting the broad range of interests and backgrounds of students taking this course And as always with John Santrock's texts the latest research in the field is incorporated throughout Getting Ready for Benjamin Rita M. Kissen, 2002-10-23 This book argues that issues of sexual diversity are inextricably interwoven into the basic concerns of pre service teacher education How do we make our students aware of assumptions regarding masculinity femininity and sexuality that arise from what is presented represented or omitted from curricula and classroom practice What do we say about homophobia and heterosexism as we anticipate the administrative hierarchies school cultures parent and community politics they will encounter as teachers What special challenges might face a teacher straight or gay who discusses sexual orientation in a high school classroom or responds to a homophobic remark in the hallway or the cafeteria How should we prepare a teacher for a parent conference with two moms or two dads The essays in this volume range from an analysis of gay stereotypes in teacher education textbooks to a discussion of queer multiculturalism to personal accounts by lesbian and gay teacher educators and heterosexual allies who are challenging homophobia and heterosexism in their own classrooms and programs All agree that education for sexual diversity is as important as education about all other forms of difference and that future teachers need to know how to create safe spaces for lesbian and gay students along with the children of gay families who are increasingly a part of the classroom landscape Life-span Development John W.
