Project Based Learning in Real World U.S. History Classrooms Diana B. Turk, Stacie Brensilver Berman, 2024-08-01

Project Based Learning in Real World U S History Classrooms demonstrates how a project based learning approach can enrich and enliven the learning and teaching of U S history for middle and secondary level students. It offers rich pedagogically innovative and academically rigorous project based learning units that can help students connect with and deeply understand key events and trends in U S history. For each major topic that is covered in U S history classrooms, this volume shows how rich historical material can be made accessible and exciting to a wide range of student learners using projects that engage them critically, imaginatively, and analytically. This book is essential reading for pre-service and practicing teachers in Social Studies Education, History Education, and Secondary Education. Handbook of Research on Adult Learning in Higher Education Okojie, Mabel C.P.O., Boulder, Tinukwa C., 2020-02-01. In today's globalized world, professional fields are continually transforming to keep pace with advancing methods of practice. The theory of adult learning specifically is a subject that has seen new innovations and insights with the advancement of online and blended learning. Examining new principles and characteristics in adult learning is imperative as emerging technologies are rapidly shifting the standards of higher education. The Handbook of Research on Adult Learning in Higher Education is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of adult education in residential, online, and blended course delivery formats. This book will focus on the impact that culture, globalization, and emerging technology currently has on adult education. While highlighting topics including andragogical principles, professional development, and artificial intelligence, this book is ideally designed for teachers, program developers, instructional designers, technologists, educational practitioners, deans, researchers, higher education faculty, and students seeking current research on new methodologies in adult education.
