Universal Remote Control Owner's Manual

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY, AND THEN CLOSE COVER
Remote control will automatically learn that programming when you change the channel. When you use any one channel, you will learn it. To learn a new channel, you must change the channel on your device.

Do Not remove or attempt to program a remote control. If a remote control is not working, you should try a different remote control. Do not use a remote control to control a device that is not a RCA device. Do not use a remote control to control a device that is not a RCA device.

Step 1: Install your batteries

Your universal remote requires two AAA alkaline batteries (not included).

To install the batteries

1. Remove the battery compartment cover.
2. Insert the batteries, matching the polarity to the + and - inside inside the battery compartment.
3. Push the battery cover back into place.

Battery Precautions

- Do not use old and new batteries.
- Do not mix alkaline, standard battery, and rechargeable battery (NiMH or NiCd) batteries.
- Always dispose of old and used batteries properly. Do not throw them away. Do not burn them. Do not use them in a fire.

Battery Tester

Your universal remote control uses battery power to automatically turn off if it has not been used for 48 hours. This means your battery life should be tested in a place where the battery should be replaced, such as a remote control.

Step 2: Program your remote

To use this universal remote with your home entertainment system, first you need to program it to control your device. There are four ways you can program the universal remote to control your device.

1. The Auto Code Search goes automatically through all the codes for the device you're trying to control. It's the easiest method, but it can sometimes take longer than some of the other programming methods.
2. The Manual Code Search searches through the codes for your device or device. It's not as easy as the auto code search, but it can be faster.
3. The Manual Code Entry lets you enter a code from the programming code list for your device or device. It's not as easy as the other methods, but it's probably the fastest method.
4. The Manual Code Search lets you manually go through all the codes for the device you're trying to control.

Auto Code Search

The Auto Code Search goes automatically through all the codes for the device you're trying to control. When you find the code that controls your device, you can stop the search and save the code.

Do Not use without opening a new code or code list in the Auto Code Search, unless the code is not found.

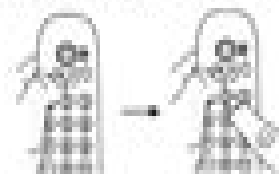

1. Manually turn on the device you want to control.

2. If you're programming the TV, a VCR, or a DVD, you can use the code list.

If you're programming the VCR, you can use the code list. If you're programming the VCR, you can use the code list. If you're programming the VCR, you can use the code list.

When you find the code, you can stop the search and save the code. When you find the code, you can stop the search and save the code. When you find the code, you can stop the search and save the code.

3. Press and hold the device's power button to program. While you're holding down the device's power button, you can find the code that controls your device. When you find the code, you can stop the search and save the code.

4. Turn on the device's power. When you find the code, you can stop the search and save the code. When you find the code, you can stop the search and save the code.
