same old boring recipes that you can't get away from. Do you want to make meaningful food-based memories with your kids that will last a lifetime? If the answer to any of these is yes, then keep reading. Many moms feel that they don't spend enough quality time with their kids, especially when competing with video games, social media, and other gadgets. In fact, when you think of all the pressures on modern families, it is no surprise that the average American family only spends 37 minutes of quality time together daily. Luckily, there is one activity that can bring joy and love back into the family home: baking. Not only does this help with child development, but it can create strong bonds between a mother and child that will last for years to come. Think back to your own childhood: How many of your fondest memories were centered around food in some way? Whether it was cooking with your grandparents or eating your mom's freshly baked cookies straight off the tray, food is at the heart of good family memories. Baking together is a fantastic activity to get involved in, and with a variety of sweet and savory recipes to make other moms jealous, you'll wish you had started sooner. In Baking: Practical Guide for Moms at Home, you will discover fantastic recipes for every occasion, including holidays, birthdays, afternoon treats, and more. Family-friendly treats that the kids can help cook, including a great range of creative after-school snacks to keep the little ones happy.
