Building a Validity Argument for the Test of English as a Foreign Language™ Carol A. Chapelle, Mary K. Enright, Joan M. Jamieson, 2011-04-06 The Test of English as a Foreign Language TM TOEFL is used by more universities worldwide than any other test to assess English language proficiency for academic admission and placement decisions and to guide English language instruction This landmark volume provides a detailed description and analysis of Educational Testing Service s research and development efforts to develop a major revision of the TOEFL test The result is a book that serves as a case study of test design drawing upon theory in the complex domain of English language proficiency while attempting to meet standards of educational measurement Building a Validity Argument for the Test of English as a Foreign Language™ is distinctive in its attempt to develop a coherent story of the rationale for a test or its revision explain the research and development process and provide the results of the validation process Through its treatment of one test it expands on and tests principles and approaches to educational measurement providing an in depth integrated perspective on the overall process of test revision Moreover because the conceptual foundation and history are presented alongside the empirical studies and validity argument these sometimes disparate areas are presented in a way that demonstrates their connections an approach which represents a departure from or extension of conventional materials on test revision This volume is particularly relevant for professionals and graduate students in educational measurement applied linguistics and second language acquisition as well as anyone interested in assessment issues

Rethinking Rubrics in Writing Assessment Maja Wilson, 2006 The conventional wisdom in English education is that rubrics are the best and easiest tools for assessment But sometimes it s better to be unconventional In Rethinking Rubrics in Writing Assessment Maja Wilson offers a new perspective on rubrics and argues for a better more responsive way to think about assessing writers progress Though you may sense a disconnect between student centered teaching and rubric based assessment you may still use rubrics for convenience or for want of better alternatives Rethinking Rubrics in Writing Assessment gives you the impetus to make a change demonstrating how rubrics can hurt kids and replace professional decision making with an inauthentic pigeonholing that stamps standardization onto a notably nonstandard process With an emphasis on thoughtful planning and teaching

Wilson shows you how to reconsider writing assessment so that it aligns more closely with high quality instruction and avoids the potentially damaging effects of rubrics Stop listening to the conventional wisdom and turn instead to a compelling new voice to find out why rubrics are often replaceable Open Rethinking Rubrics in Writing Assessment and let Maja Wilson start you down the path to more sensitive authentic style of writing assessment Artificial Intelligence in Education Ido Roll,Danielle McNamara,Sergey Sosnovsky,Rose Luckin,Vania Dimitrova,2021-06-11 This two volume set LNAI 12748 and 12749 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 22nd International Conference on Artificial Intelligence in Education AIED 2021 held in Utrecht The Netherlands in June 2021 The 40 full papers presented together with 76 short papers 2 panels papers 4 industry papers 4 doctoral consortium and 6 workshop papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 209 submissions The conference provides opportunities for the cross fertilization of approaches techniques and ideas from the many fields that comprise AIED including computer science cognitive and learning sciences education game design psychology sociology linguistics as well as many domain specific areas The conference was held virtually due to the COVID 19 pandemic Handbook of Research on Innovative Pedagogies and Technologies for Online Learning in Higher Education Vu, Phu,Fredrickson, Scott,Moore, Carl,2016-12-28 The integration of technology has become an integral part of the educational environment By developing new methods of online learning students can be further aided in reaching goals and effectively solving problems The Handbook of Research on Innovative Pedagogies and Technologies for Online Learning in Higher Education is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on the implementation of instructional strategies tools and innovations in online learning environments Featuring extensive coverage across a range of relevant perspectives and topics such as social constructivism collaborative learning and projects and virtual worlds this publication is ideally designed for academicians practitioners and researchers seeking current research on best methods to effectively incorporate technology into the learning environment Project-Based Activities, Grades 6 - 8 Schyrlet Cameron,Carolyn Craig,2017-01-03 Build teamwork enhance communication and refine critical thinking with Mark Twain Project Based Activities for sixth eighth grades The exercises in this book require students to collaborate while creating graphic novels virtual systems book trailers school brochures and more To achieve success it is essential to work together to accomplish goals both in and out of the classroom Project Based Activities promotes teamwork while challenging students to create unforgettable story characters utilize informational text write argumentative essays cite sources use explanatory writing write book reviews Mark Twain Media Publishing Company provides engaging supplemental books and eye catching decorations for middle grade and upper grade classrooms This product line is designed by leading educators and features a variety of subjects including history fine arts science language arts social studies government math and positive behavior
