Porter,2020-11-27 ABOUT THIS BOOK Thriller doesn't describe it People live all sorts of lives but few as exciting as portrayed here The author's short stories go from entertaining murderers and gang members to scary dating moments with a potential rapist only to find love with someone she met 300 years prior Sharing her work as a psychiatric social worker gives us many real life experiences one can only hope to avoid in one's own life Yet some situations are encouraging as she helps others survive The details of her descriptions are amazing as she paints us pictures so vivid we can shut our eyes and see the little gray sausage like curls and round steel framed glasses on Mrs Waddell Whoever wrote a poem about MY ZIT Different times in history are clearly described from when the little lady of the plantation threw the Yankee soldier over the fence to land in a mud puddle surrounded by snorting pigs What does one do when facing the jagged glass ends of a broken beer bottle handled by a furious man 6'3" tall Who ever dared to foster a former heroin pusher Does anyone in your family vividly remember the details about our perspective of WWII The author lived in the only city in the U S that housed an active army Overseas Replacement Depot She even remembers the blue cellophane that covered the flashlights of the Air Raid Wardens This writing covers humor adventure religion history law education philosophy psychology parapsychology parenting drama and much more Call her crazy call her eccentric She lived loved DARED and wrote to tell about it You will enjoy plenty of laughs R Charles Guenther retired school administrator Research Relating to Children , Youth Violence and Delinquency Frank P. Williams,Marilyn D. McShane,2007-05-30 Juvenile crime and violence has always piqued the public's interest Indeed each generation of Americans tends to define the youth crime problem as more serious than any previous generation Even though juvenile homicides have been decreasing since the mid 1990s the media is still quick to provide dramatic examples of juvenile monsters who are terrorizing their communities Shootings at school gang banging and trafficking drugs school bullies and charging juveniles as adults are subjects that have recently received wide media coverage This three volume set on the nature incidence consequences and treatment of youth crime and violence will help readers understand the true nature of youth crime and violence from a variety of perspectives Each volume covers a different area and experts write on topics ranging from sex offending to fire starting from gangs to guns from juvenile probation to charging youths as adults from mandatory mental health treatment to police in school settings and more What drives a teenager to steal To kill Why does youth crime and violence occur Why are youths such vulnerable targets What can be done to stop youth offenders and what can be done to help youthful victims How does the criminal justice system respond What do communities do to punish and protect youths What can schools do to intervene All these questions and more are answered in this set on this timely and important topic Our youth are our most precious commodity and protecting vulnerable children as well as helping offenders is of paramount importance for steering them toward safe and productive lives These volumes help readers better understand the causes and consequences of youth violence and crime and consider ways to address the problems Research in Education ,1974 News Notes of California Libraries California State Library,1954 Vols for 1971 include annual reports and statistical summaries Annual Report and Proceedings of the Annual Conference National Probation Association (U.S.),1918 Research Relating to Children Clearinghouse for Research in Child Life (U.S.),1972 Data Resources of the National Institute of Justice National Institute of Justice (U.S.),1993 Data Resources of the National Institute of Justice (1993) Michael J.
