

South African Nursing Council

Regulating nursing, advocating for the public

The colour turquoise is taken from the SANC Coat of Arms to ensure a link with our heraldic emblem

The stethoscope is a universal symbol used in healthcare by professionals within the medical industry

The oil lamp is a universal symbol reminiscent of Florence Nightingale, and by implication of nursing throughout the world

The red is symbolic for its association with healing

The SANC slogan "Regulating nursing, advocating for the public" reflects the essence of what the SANC does - it regulates the Nursing and Midwifery professions by establishing and maintaining nursing education and training as well as practice standards; it also advocates on behalf of the public in matters concerning nursing.
