Silencing the Guns in Africa Antonio Garcia, Jacob Udo-Udo Jacob, 2025-03-14 The scholarship of this book is drawn from local and international experts by framing critically a number of discourses on matters of security conflict violence and peace on the African continent It is indeed a breath of fresh air to the scientific community largely because it contributes to the on going debates on security issues Dr Ntsikelelo Benjamin Breakfast Director of the Center for Security Peace and Conflict Resolution at Nelson Mandela University This book makes a deep contribution to scholarly literature on conflict studies peacekeeping and peacebuilding in Africa Written largely from the perspective of the applied social sciences it is empirically rich and offers refreshing insights into social behaviour in military contexts This is a timely contribution because current public discourse in South Africa is centred on the gains and missed opportunities of thirty years of democracy and new lenses are welcome Many of the chapters reflect South African experiences This is to be welcomed as it demonstrates that scholars and practitioners from the country are reflecting on the complexities of South African experiences of defence and security matters in contemporary times Dr Sandy Africa Director of Research at Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA This volume brings together the voices of scholars and practitioners a diverse group of writers who are passionate about and committed to creating a safer more prosperous and peaceful Africa Each with their own specialism this work combines many different world views and approaches Conflict in Africa is an impossibly broad topic to cover in a single edited publication and so we focus on a select number of case studies expositions and themes The Palgrave International Handbook of Gender and the Military Rachel Woodward, Claire

Duncanson, 2017-06-27 The Palgrave International Handbook of Gender and the Military provides a comprehensive overview of the multiple ways in which gender and militaries connect International and multi disciplinary in scope this edited volume provides authoritative accounts of the many intersections through which militaries issues and military forces are shaped by gender The chapters provide detailed accounts of key issues informed by examples from original research in a wealth of different national contexts This Handbook includes coverage of conceptual approaches to the study of gender and militaries gender and the organisation of state military forces gender as it pertains to military forces in action transitions and transgressions within militaries gender and non state military forces and gender in representations of military personnel and practices With contributions from a range of both established and early career scholars The Palgrave International Handbook of Gender and the Military is an essential guide to current debates on gender and contemporary military issues Women and the Military Ruth Margolies Beitler, Sarah M. Gerstein, 2021-04-07 This addition to the Women and Society around the World series explores the roles challenges and accomplishments of women in the military in countries across the globe Around the world millions of men serve in their countries militaries be it on land on the seas or in the air But while many militaries have opened all positions to women even those on the front lines others remain closed Countries have cited a number of reasons for their policies including changing views of women and the military conscription and economic and demographic trends Written by a professor of comparative politics at the United States Military Academy at West Point and an active duty army major this book seeks to provide an understanding of women s roles in militaries around the world The book is organized by region exploring societal and cultural views of masculinity and war as well as factors influencing changing views of women and the military including conscription and economic and demographic trends Topics also include sexual harassment recruitment and views on women's physicality and strength High school students undergraduates and general readers will find this cross cultural study a fascinating and important resource

Peacekeeping in Africa

Marco Jowell, 2018-02-21 In recent decades African states have developed an impressive infrastructure for training their peacekeepers In addition peacekeeping peacebuilding and associated areas of conflict resolution have become significant areas of employment Marco Jowell has spent a decade working in peacekeeping training in East Africa initially as one of the foreign Technical Advisers at the Peace Support Operations PSO training centre in Kenya the International Peace Support Training Centre IPSTC and subsequently as a strategic adviser to the Rwanda Peace Academy Using first hand experience he considers how military forces from a variety of African states with great differences in history language and political systems and with militaries with different cultures and capabilities can conduct complicated multinational peacekeeping operations He shows how regional peacekeeping training centres provide an environment for African elites predominately military to interact with each other through shared training and experiences This process of interaction or socialisation improves skills but also encourages cohesion so that future African led missions will be managed by well trained officers who are comfortable and willing to work within a regional or Pan African framework Jowell shows that part of the aim of peacekeeping training centres is to foster a Pan African outward looking ideology or disposition as well as improving technical ability This book will be essential reading for all involved with African military and security studies and analysts of peacekeeping training and operations

Youth In South Africa

Ariane De Lannoy, Malose Langa, 2021-05-05 South Africa is characterised by a youthful population and the challenges and possibilities that characterise the young generation are both warning signs and beacons of hope for a nation founded on social justice Youth in South Africa Agency in visibility and national development takes stock of the nation's development as it affects young people Authors offer both personal and professional insights into the ways in which the youth navigate their own pathways to adulthood These include formal and informal engagements with politics as well as protest unemployment entrepreneurship education religion experiences with sexuality and violence and a multitude of other life experiences Contributors paint a picture of the initiative agency and resilience of the youth as well as the challenges before them Authors also identify the state of wait-hood faced by those unable to make the transition out of youth into full adulthood as a result of their socio economic circumstances and political context By engaging these experiences and insights and primarily informed by the inputs of young people the authors highlight the limitations of existing youth policies and frameworks The case is made for policy instruments to be informed by the lived experiences of the youth as they navigate a complex macrosocial environment and by the messages the youth communicate about the limitations of current approaches

Annual Report South Africa. Department of Defence, 2016 Political Economy of Post-apartheid South Africa Vusi Gumede, 2015-12-29 The book made up of three parts covers a wide spectrum of political economy issues on post apartheid South Africa Although the text is mainly descriptive to explain various areas of the political economy of post apartheid South Africa the first and the last parts provide illuminating insights on the kind of society that is emerging during the twenty one years of democracy in the country The book discusses important aspects of the political history of apartheid South Africa and the evolution of post apartheid society including an important recap of the history of southern Africa before colonialism The text is a comprehensive description of numerous political economy phenomena since South Africa gained its political independence and covers some important themes that have not been discussed in detail in other publications on post apartheid South Africa The book also updates earlier work of the author on policy and law making land and agriculture education and training as well as on poverty and inequality in post apartheid South Africa thereby providing a wide ranging overview of the socio economic development approaches followed by the successive post apartheid administrations Interestingly three chapters focus on various aspects of the post apartheid South African economy economic policies economic empowerment and industrial development Through the lens of the notion of democratic developmental state and taking apartheid colonialism as a point of departure the book suggests that so far post apartheid South Africa has mixed socio economic progress The authors extensive experience in the South African government ensures that the book has policy relevance while it is also theoretically sound The text is useful for anyone who wants to understand the totality of the policies and legislation as well as the political economy interventions pursued since 1994 by the South African Government
