As I have noted, the Journal of the American Medical Association is the only journal to have published a paper on the topic of the ethics of research on children. The paper, by the late Dr. Robert White, was published in 1964. It was entitled "The Ethics of Research on Children." It was a landmark paper, and it has been cited many times since then. It was a paper that was written by a pediatric surgeon, and it was a paper that was written for a pediatric audience. It was a paper that was written by a pediatric surgeon, and it was a paper that was written for a pediatric audience. It was a paper that was written by a pediatric surgeon, and it was a paper that was written for a pediatric audience.
