Anthologizing Poe Emron Esplin,Margarida Vale de Gato,2020-08-06 This collection explores how anthologizers and editors of Edgar Allan Poe play an integral role in shaping our conceptions of Poe as the author we have come to recognize revere and critique today In the spheres of literature and popular culture Poe wields more global influence than any other U S author This influence however cannot be attributed solely to the quality of Poe s texts or to his compellingly tragic biography Rather his continued prominence as a writer owes much to the ways that Poe has been interpreted portrayed and packaged by an extensive group of mediators ranging from anthologizers editors translators and fellow writers to literary critics filmmakers musicians and illustrators In this volume the work of presenting Poe s texts for public consumption becomes a fascinating object of study in its own right one that highlights the powerful and often overlooked influence of those who have edited anthologized translated and adapted the author s writing over the past 170 years

The French Historical Revolution Peter Burke,2015-01-20 This book provides a critical history of the movement associated with the journal Annales from its foundation in 1929 to the present This movement has been the single most important force in the development of what is sometimes called the new history Renowned cultural historian Peter Burke distinguishes between four main generations in the development of the Annales School The first generation included Lucien Febvre and Marc Bloch who fought against the old historical establishment and founded the journal Annales to encourage interdisciplinary collaboration. The second generation was dominated by Fernand Braudel whose magnificent work on the Mediterranean has become a modern classic. The third generation, deeply associated with the cultural turn in historical scholarship, includes recently well-known historians such as Emmanuel Le Roy Ladurie, Jacques Le Goff, and Georges Duby. This new edition brings us right up to the present and contemplates the work of a fourth generation, including practitioners such as Roger Chartier, Serge Gruzinski, and Jacques Revel. This new generation continued much of the cultural focus of the previous Annales historians while diversifying further and becoming increasingly reflexive—a move that owes much to the sociocultural theories of Michel Foucault, Michel de Certeau, and Pierre Bourdieu. Wide-ranging yet concise, this new edition of a classic work of analysis of one of the most important historical movements of the twentieth century will be welcomed by students of history and other social sciences and by the interested general reader.

Twenty-first-century Perspectives on Nineteenth-century Art Petra ten-Doesschate Chu, Laurinda S. Dixon, 2008

This book presents an interdisciplinary and inclusive view of nineteenth-century art observed from the vantage point of the new twenty-first century. The areas of expertise represented by the thirty essays herein span the full range of nineteenth-century studies and include discussions of such artistic styles as realism, impressionism, romanticism, and art nouveau, as well as early twentieth-century movements that owe their formative influence to the nineteenth century. Topics span the historical gamut from revivalism to the roots of modernism, considering along the way such themes as the depiction of women, Orientalism, art criticism, evolutionary theory, political propaganda, history, painting, landscape, and national identity. Aspects of art display, public monuments, and international exhibitions shed light on the roles of government and individuals in the dissemination of artistic styles and subject matter. Unique in this collection is an emphasis on the marketing of art, both in America and abroad, which considers the important financial and commercial issues that continue to influence viewers' beliefs and perceptions. Most important, this book demonstrates that the rich field of nineteenth-century studies continues to inspire discovery and creativity. Publisher description.

The Pataphysician's Library Ben Fisher, 2000-01-01. The Pataphysician's Library is a study of aspects of 1890s French literature with specific reference to the traditions of Symbolism and Decadence. Its main focus is Alfred Jarry, who has proved perhaps surprisingly to be one of the more durable fin de siècle authors. The originality of this study lies in its use of the enigmatic list of books termed the livres pairs, which appears in Jarry's 1898 novel Gestes et Opinions du docteur Faustroll pataphysicien, his best-known prose work. The greatest interest of the livres pairs lies in a group of works by Jarry's friends and contemporaries, primarily Leon Bloy, Georges Darien, Gustave Kahn, Catulle Mendès, Josephin Madan, Rachilde, and Henri de Regnier. Several of these authors feature as the lords of islands visited by the pataphysician Dr Faustroll in his curious voyage around Paris. In conjunction with Jarry's own works, the contemporary livres pairs serve to illustrate the vibrant and experimental atmosphere in which these authors worked.
