Economics and Political Implications of International Financial Reporting Standards Uchenna, Efobi, Nnadi, Matthias, Tanna, Sailesh, Iyoha, Francis, 2016-03-08

International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) are internationally recognized financial reporting guidelines regulated by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) to ensure that uniformity exists in the global financial system. In addition to regulating financial reporting, the adoption of IFRS has been shown to impact the flow of foreign capital and trade. Economics and Political Implications of International Financial Reporting Standards focuses on the consequences and determinants of the adoption of the International Financial Reporting Standard (IFRS) which has remained a top issue in International Accounting. This timely publication brings to the forefront issues related to the political and economic influences and impacts of IFRS in addition to providing a platform for further research in this area. Policy makers, academics, researchers, graduate level students and professionals across the fields of management, economics, finance, international relations and political science will find this publication pertinent to furthering their understanding of financial reporting at the global level.

Strategies for the Global Economic System for 2030 Elena G. Popkova, Artem I. Krivtsov, Aleksei V. Bogoviz, 2021-07-19

Against the background of continuing crises in the world's economy, the question of what future awaits it in the third decade of the 21st century has become urgent. According to the paradigm model of long waves, the next global economic crisis is expected to transpire somewhere around 2030 This book defines the basic conditions for the development of the modern global economy analyzing future scenarios for its long term development and providing applied recommendations for the practical implementation of the optimal scenario The book first explores the conceptual vision of the future and the priorities for the strategic development of the global economic system until 2030 It then formulates the requirements for entrepreneurship to achieve the priorities of the strategic development of the global economic system including long term industry solutions for entrepreneurship and markets Third it outlines the guidelines for state regulation of the global economic system in the interest of achieving the priorities of its strategic development in the period up to 2030

Displacement Economies in Africa Amanda Hammar, 2014-05-08 Large scale displacement whether caused by war state related political or development projects different forms of political violence structural crisis or even natural disasters evokes many stereotyped assumptions about those forcibly displaced or emplaced At the same time there is a problematic lack of attention paid to the diversity of actors strategies and practices that reshape the world in the face and chronic aftermath of dramatic moments of violent dislocation In this highly original volume based on empirical case studies from across sub Saharan Africa the authors reveal the paradoxical effects both intended and unexpected that displacement produces and that manifest themselves in displacement economies An important contribution to a topic of growing scholarly and policy interest

Politics at a Distance from the State Lucien van der Walt, Kirk Helliker, 2022-08-23 For decades most anti capitalist and anti imperialist movements identified radical transformation with capturing state power The collapse of these statist projects from the 1970s led to a global crisis of left and working class politics But crisis has also opened space for rediscovering alternative society centered anti capitalist modes of bottom up change operating at a distance from the state These have registered important successes in practice such as the Zapatistas in Mexico and Rojava in Syria They have been a key influence on movements from Occupy in United States to the landless in Latin America to anti austerity struggles in Europe and Asia to urban movements in Africa Their lineages include anarchism syndicalism autonomist Marxism philosophers like Alain Badiou and radical popular praxis This path breaking volume recovers this understanding of social transformation long side lined but now resurgent like a seed in the soil that keeps breaking through and growing It provides case studies with reference to South Africa and Zimbabwe and includes a dossier of key texts from a century of anarchists syndicalists insurgent unionists and anti apartheid activists in South Africa Originating in an African summit of radical academics struggle veterans and social movements the book includes a preface from John Holloway

The Politics of the Dead in Zimbabwe, 2000-2020 Joost Fontein, 2022 Innovative and challenging study that provides fresh insights on the anthropology of death and postcolonial politics In 1898 just before she was hanged for rebelling against colonial rule Charwe Nyakasikana spirit medium of the legendary ancestor Ambuya Nehanda famously prophesised that my bones will rise again A century later bones bodies and human remains have come to occupy an increasingly complex place in Zimbabwe s postcolonial milieu

From ancestral bones rising again in the struggle for independence and later land to resurfacing bones of unsettled wardead and from the troubling decaying remains of post independence gukurahundi massacres to the leaky tortured bodies of recent election violence human materials are intertwined in postcolonial politics in ways that go far beyond yet necessarily implicate contests over memory commemoration and the representation of the past In this book Joost Fontein examines the complexities of human remains in Zimbabwe s politics of the dead Challenging and innovative he takes us beyond current scholarship on memory commemoration and the changing significance of traditional death practices to examine the political implications of human remains as material substances as duplicitous rumours and as returning spirits Linking the indeterminacy of human substances to the productive but precarious uncertainties of rumours and spirits the book points to how the incompleteness of death is politically productive and ultimately derives from the problematic entangled excessivities of human material and immaterial existence and is deeply intertwined with the stylistics of postcolonial power and politics Joost Fontein is Professor of Anthropology University of Johannesburg He was previously Director of the British Institute in Eastern Africa and Lecturer in Social Anthropology at the University of Edinburgh His books include Remaking Mutirikwi Landscape Water and Belonging James Currey 2015 shortlisted for the African Studies Association 2016 Herskovits Prize Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Lesotho Swaziland and Botswana University of Johannesburg Press

A Non-Technical Guide to International Accounting Roger Hussey, Audra Ong, 2019-11-08 Business has become more international and more complex Whether you are a manager a student or someone generally interested in corporate financial information you want information and you want to understand that information Companies in all countries are required to generate financial information if for no other reason than to settle their tax obligations If you are interested in the larger companies such as those listed on a stock exchange they must make financial information public and the nature and type of that information is strictly regulated Companies must comply with accounting standards Many countries use the International Accounting Standards issued by the IFRS Foundation This is a not for profit international organization that has developed a single set of high quality global accounting standards These standards can be complex but this book explains clearly the main requirements

Handbook of Research on Strategies and Interventions to Mitigate COVID-19 Impact on SMEs Baporikar, Neeta,2021-06-25 The COVID 19 pandemic has affected every aspect of the modern world and its impact is felt by all. The pandemic particularly has had a large impact on businesses as they were forced to close, supply chains were disrupted and new health and safety precautions were adopted. As such, many businesses, especially small businesses, were faced with losses they could not afford. Governments and stakeholders across the world have thus needed to formulate various strategies and interventions to mitigate the negative consequences of the COVID 19 pandemic, particularly as they relate to small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs). The Handbook of Research on Strategies and Interventions to Mitigate COVID 19 Impact on SMEs is a comprehensive reference source that encapsulates the overall effect of COVID 19 on SMEs and a variety of strategies to overcome the negative effects and create more sustainable policies and organizations moving forward. The book offers a thorough overview of interventions and tactics to help organizations, entrepreneurs, and institutions of higher learning overcome the negative impact of COVID 19 while preparing policies for a more effective post-pandemic world. Covering topics that include sustainable practices for development interventions to lessen the impact of COVID 19 and psychological resilience for SME employees, this book is ideal for entrepreneurs, managers, executives, small businesses, family firms, academicians, scholar practitioners, policymakers, researchers, and students.

Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa Kenneth Omeje, 2018-10-03. Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa explores the challenges and opportunities faced by countries and societies transitioning from armed conflicts to peace in contemporary Africa. It evaluates the effectiveness, outcomes, and failures of existing peacebuilding initiatives implemented by stakeholders and proposes new strategies and approaches to facilitate the transition. The book investigates both micro and macro-level conflicts in various parts of Africa as well as the efforts made to resolve them and build peace. The book pays particular attention to grassroots-based micro-level conflicts often disregarded in peacebuilding literature, which tends to focus on macro-level neo-liberal state reconstruction and peacebuilding efforts. The book adopts an evidence-based, policy-relevant approach to peacebuilding in Africa. The various chapter contributors offer a lucid analysis and critique of some of the prevailing paradigms and strategies of peacebuilding practiced in Africa. Together, the authors recommend innovative strategies to mobilise and coordinate governance institutions and partnerships at all levels: international, regional, national, and local, to prevent conflict escalation in volatile states and advance the rebuilding of violence-affected states and communities. Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa provides a much-needed perspective from African scholars and will be of interest to students, researchers, policy makers, and practitioners with an interest in promoting legitimate policy interventions and sustainable peace in Africa.

Re-thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Edward Shizha, Ngoni Makuvaza, 2017-04-17. What have postcolonial Sub-Saharan African countries achieved in their education policies and programmes? How far have they contributed to successful attainment of the targeted 2015 Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) on education? What were the constraints and barriers for developing an education system that appeals to the needs of the sub-region? Re-thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Post

This volume s contributors evaluate the accomplishments limits and consequences of using quantitative metrics in global health Whether analyzing maternal mortality rates the relationships between political goals and metrics data or the links between health outcomes and a program s fiscal support the contributors question the ability of metrics to solve global health problems They capture a moment when global health scholars and practitioners must evaluate the potential effectiveness and pitfalls of different metrics even as they remain elusive and problematic Contributors Vincanne Adams Susan Erikson Molly Hales Pierre Minn Adeola Oni Orisan Carolyn Smith Morris Marlee Tichenor Lily Walkover Claire L Wendland Tales from Albarado Smoki Musaraj, 2020-08-15 Tales from Albarado revisits times of excitement and loss in early 1990s Albania in which about a dozen pyramid firms collapsed and caused the country to fall into anarchy and a near civil war To gain a better understanding of how people from all walks of life came to invest in these financial schemes and how these schemes became intertwined with everyday transactions dreams and aspirations Smoki Musaraj looks at the materiality sociality and temporality of financial speculations at the margins of global capital She argues that the speculative financial practices of the schemes were enabled by official financial infrastructures such as the postsocialist free market reforms by unofficial economies such as transnational remittances as well as by historically specific forms of entrepreneurship transnational social networks and desires for a European modernity Overall these granular stories of participation in the Albanian schemes help understand neoliberal capitalism as a heterogeneous economic formation that
