Ożańska-Ponikwia, 2014-09-26 This book addresses a particularly important area of second language acquisition research specifically the factors that mediate learning outcomes in learning a second or foreign language It provides a comprehensive up to date overview of studies in the field of second language learning and L2 use from the point of view of personality traits and emotional intelligence It also presents results of a mixed method study researching the possible influence of these variables on the process of learning a second language Furthermore the book represents the first systematic exploration of the role of emotional intelligence and the factors related to it in moderating attainment in the target language What is also unique here is the investigation of the role of personality with respect to different target language skills and subsystems which allows finer grained insights into this relationship The book will be of considerable interest to both researchers teachers and students in the fields of SLA TESOL applied linguistics and bilingualism

Multidisciplinary Approaches to Bilingualism in the Hispanic and Lusophone World Kate Bellamy, Michael W. Child, Paz González, Antje Muntendam, M. Carmen Parafita Couto, 2017-05-31 This volume offers a multidisciplinary view of cutting edge research on bilingualism in Spanish and Portuguese speaking regions with the aim of building a bridge between sub fields and approaches that often find themselves isolated from one another The thirteen contributions in this volume offer a glimpse of the diversity of bilingualism present in the Hispanic and Lusophone world shedding light on the sheer variety of speaker communities language pairings e g Spanish English Spanish Basque Spanish Dutch Portuguese Spanish English Portuguese English Spanish Kichee Maya and Spanish Ixcatec and speaker types e g simultaneous bilinguals and early and late sequential bilinguals The diversity present in this collection of papers both in empirical coverage and methodological and theoretical approaches will be of interest to a wide range of students and researchers in bilingualism and Hispanic and Lusophone linguistics

A Parametric Study of Language Training in the Peace Corps Harvard University. Laboratory for Research in Instruction, John Bissell Carroll, 1966

The Language Question in Europe and Diverse Societies Dario Castiglione, Christopher Longman, 2007-03-12 Recent developments in the European integration process have raised amongst many other things the issue of linguistic diversity for some a stumbling block to the creation of a European democratic polity and its legal and social institutions The solution to the question of language involves an understanding of the role played by natural languages and the consequent design of policies and institutional mechanisms to facilitate inter linguistic and intercultural communication This is not an exclusively European problem and nor is it entirely new for it is also the problem of linguistic majorities and minorities within unitary nation states However the effects of globalization and the diffusion of multiculturalism within nation states have given renewed emphasis to the question of language in diverse societies Facing the question anew involves reconsidering traditional ideas about social communication and the public sphere about opinion formation and diffusion about the protection of cultural and linguistic minorities and about the role that language plays in the process of formation of political and legal cultures This volume is intended as a multidisciplinary contribution towards studying and assessing the range of problems that form the language question in Europe and diverse societies
