OECD Urban Studies Improving Transport Planning for Accessible Cities OECD,2020-12-11 Cities are places of opportunity They provide not just jobs but a whole range of public cultural social and consumption amenities Transport is what connects people to these opportunities and cities provide access with varying degrees of success especially when it comes to modes of transport that favour a green transition This report argues that building sustainable transport networks for accessible cities requires a holistic planning approach a sound institutional framework reliable sources of funding strong governmental capacity and should build on community engagement Developing National Urban Policies Debolina Kundu,Remy Sietchiping,Michael Kinyanjui,2020-08-17 This book discusses and analyzes past and ongoing national urban policy development efforts from around the globe particularly those that can lead the way toward smart and green cities In view of the adoption of the UN's 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development especially the goal to have cities that are inclusive safe resilient and sustainable urban policies that can help achieve this goal are urgently needed The UN Habitat HABITAT III puts national urban policies at the heart of implementing and rethinking the urban agenda and identifies them as being integral to the equitable and sustainable development of nations Against this background this important book which gathers contributions from academics planners and urban specialists reviews existing urban policies from developing and developed nations discusses various countries smart and green urban policies and outlines the way forward As such it is essential reading for all social scientists planners designers architects and policymakers working on urban development around the world Trends in Urbanisation and Urban Policies in OECD Countries What Lessons for China?

OECD,China Development Research Foundation,2010-08-27 This report presents an overview of trends in urban policies in OECD countries with the objective to identify successes and failure that could inform national Chinese policy makers in their preparation of an Urbanisation Strategy China's Urban Revolution Austin Williams,2017-10-19 By 2025 China will have built fifteen new supercities each with 25 million inhabitants It will have created 250 Eco cities as well clean green car free people friendly high tech urban centres From the edge of an impending eco catastrophe we are arguably witnessing history's greatest environmental turnaround an urban experiment that may provide valuable lessons for cities worldwide Whether or not we choose to believe the hype there is little doubt that this is an experiment that needs unpicking understanding and learning from Austin Williams The Architectural Review s China correspondent explores the progress and perils of China s vast eco city program describing the complexities which emerge in the race to balance the environment with industrialisation quality with quantity and the liberty of the individual with the authority of the Chinese state Lifting the lid on the economic and social realities of the Chinese blueprint for eco modernisation Williams tells the story of China s rise and reveals the pragmatic political and economic motives that lurk behind the successes and failures of its eco cities Will these new kinds of urban developments be good humane healthy places Can China find a third way in which humanity nature economic growth and sustainability are reconciled And what lessons can we learn for our own vision of the urban future This is a timely and readable account which explores a range of themes environmental political cultural and architectural to show how the eco city program sheds fascinating light on contemporary Chinese society and provides a lens through which to view the politics of sustainability closer to home

The Routledge Handbook of Planning Megacities in the Global South Deden Rukmana,2020-06-04 Cities are now home to 55% of the world s population and that number is rising Urban populations across the world will continue to grow including in megacities with populations over ten million In 2016 there were 31 megacities globally according to the United Nations World Cities Report with 24 of those cities located in the Global South That number is expected to rise to 41 by 2030 with all ten new megacities in the Global South where the processes of urbanization are intrinsically distinct from those in the Global North The Routledge Handbook of Planning Megacities in the Global South provides rigorous comparative analyses discussing the challenges processes best practices and initiatives of urbanization in Middle America South America the Middle East Africa South Asia East Asia and Southeast Asia This book is indispensable reading for students and scholars of urban planning and its significance as a resource will only continue to grow as urbanization reshapes the global population

Survival Governance Peter Drahos,2021-01-29 To deal with the climate crisis we need a new paradigm of technological and social development aimed at the restoration of ecological systems the bio digital energy paradigm How do we get to this paradigm The book draws on more than 250 interviews across 17 key countries to present a practical answer this question We need a strong state to lead There are four possible leaders the EU US China and India China is best placed to lead It is building experimental cities like eco cities and sponge cities out of which could grow the climate survival governance that the world badly needs

Local and Regional Development Andy Pike,2016-07-15 Actors and institutions in localities and regions across the world are seeking prosperity and well being amidst tumultuous and disruptive shifts and transitions generated by an increasingly globalised knowledge intensive capitalism global financial instability volatility and crisis concerns about economic social and ecological sustainability climate change and resource shortages new multi actor and multi level systems of government and governance and a re ordering of the international political economy state austerity and retrenchment and new and reformed approaches to intervention policy and institutions for local and regional development Local and Regional Development provides an accessible critical and integrated examination of local and regional development theory institutions and policy in this changing context Amidst its rising importance the book addresses the fundamental issues of what kind of local and regional development and for whom its purposes principles and values frameworks of understanding approaches and interventions and integrated approaches to local and regional development throughout the world The approach provides a theoretically informed critical analysis of contemporary local and regional development in an international and multi disciplinary context grounded in concrete empirical analysis from experiences in the global North and South It concludes by identifying what might constitute holistic inclusive progressive and sustainable local and regional development and reflecting upon its limits and political renewal
