Man's Perfection In Righteousness Saint Augustine of Hippo, Aeterna Press, Inchoate love therefore is inchoate holiness advanced love is advanced holiness great love is great holiness perfect love is perfect holiness but this love is out of a pure heart and of a good conscience and of faith unfeigned which in this life is then the greatest when life itself is contemned in comparison with it I wonder however whether it has not a soil in which to grow after it has quitted this mortal life But in what place and at what time soever it shall reach that state of absolute perfection which shall admit of no increase it is certainly not shed abroad in our hearts by any energies either of the nature or the volition that are within us but by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us and which both helps our infirmity and co operates with our strength For it is itself indeed the grace of God through our Lord Jesus Christ to whom with the Father and the Holy Spirit appertaineth eternity and all goodness for ever and ever Amen Aeterna Press Saint Augustine's Anti-Pelagian Works Philip Schaff, 2017-10-23

Where traditional Christianity has always affirmed that sin can only be atoned by the sacrifice of Christ the theory that the human will is able to earn salvation of its own accord was the basis of Pelagian thought Augustine in this series of works fought vehemently against such ways of thinking because he wanted to make people realize that Christ is the one and only way to find true salvation A Selection from the Writings of the Reformers and Early Protestant Divines of the Church of England Legh Richmond, 1817 The Works of John Bunyan: Experimental, doctrinal, and practical John Bunyan, 1861 An exposition of the Parables Benjamin Keach, 1856 The Works of John Bunyan John Bunyan, 1860
