Donald Empson

On The Street Where You Live English Edition:

The Street Where You Live Donald Empson, 2006 More than one thousand entries and more than one hundred photographs present an entertaining history of the often quirky origins of St Paul place names from A Street to Zimmermann Place and including parks lakes streams roads cemeteries bridges neighborhoods and many other landmarks Original On the Street where You Live: Victoria's early roads and railways Danda Humphreys, 2000 In the mid 1800s Victoria grew from a fur trading post into a provincial capital the jewel in British Columbia's golden crown Meanwhile many of the early residents happy to leave the Hudson's Bay Company behind followed simple trails from the fort or discovered new routes of their own In her first book Danda Humphreys introduced readers to some of the people who forged those pioneer pathways Now she takes us another step back in time to the roads and railways that connected the original city's core to today's suburbs From Saanich to Sooke street names tell stories of intrigue and adventure Rowland Avenue named for the farm labourer with a sinister sideline hangman for the HBC Joan Crescent where coal baron Robert Dunsmuir's widow once resided in solitary splendour in a castle called Craigdarroch Sidney Avenue close to where the Brethour brothers donated land for the northern terminus of the Cordwood Express first train to link the city with the Saanich Peninsula and the islands in the Strait of Georgia In this second book in her On the Street Where You Live trilogy Danda once again combines her passion for the past with a penchant for lively prose to bring you stories about Victoria's pioneers You know the streets now meet the people their lives their loves and the legends they left behind

On the Street Where You Live Danda Humphreys, 1999 Today the streets of Victoria are busy thoroughfares Yesterday they were simple trails used by the Hudson's Bay Company men and the First Nations people who traded with them and helped build their fort Then came the gold miners followed by the bankers and businessmen sailors and saloon keepers poets postmasters architects and astronomers They're remembered in Victoria's city's streets and every street name tells a story Courtney Street is a misspelled memorial to Captain George W Courtenay whose Constance was one of the first of Her Majesty's vessels to sail into Esquimalt Harbour in the 1840s Fan Tan Alley provides a tantalizing glimpse into 1800s Chinatown where Fan Tan gambling dens existed alongside brothels and opium factories that fuelled the gamblers' fortunes Rattenbury Place is named for the ill-fated architect who designed the Empress Hotel and the Parliament Buildings Danda's knack for colourful no-nonsense writing makes history come alive You'll sympathize with the characters she writes about enjoy them and through their eyes experience 19th-century Victoria in a way you've never experienced it before

On the Street Where You Live Mary Higgins Clark, 2011-11-29 A popular guest at many of the town's finest homes he particularly enjoyed participating in the sombre discussions about Martha's disappearance that still came up from time to time over the dinner table I could tell you about it every little detail he said to himself with a self-satisfied smile as he strolled the boardwalk exchanging pleasantries with good friends he met along the way But of course I won't That's our secret mine and Martha's In the gripping new novel from the Queen of Suspense a young woman is haunted by two murders that are closely linked despite the one hundred and ten years that separate them Following the acrimonious breakup of her marriage and the searing experience of being pursued by an obsessed stalker criminal defense attorney Emily Graham accepts an offer to leave Albany and work in a major law firm in Manhattan Feeling a need for roots she buys her ancestral home a restored Victorian house in the historic New Jersey seaside resort town of Spring Lake Her family had sold the house in 1892 after one of Emily s forebears Madeline Shapley then still a young girl disappeared Now more than a century later as the house is being renovated and the backyard excavated for a pool the skeleton of a young woman is found She is identified as Martha Lawrence who had disappeared from Spring Lake over four years ago Within her skeletal hand is the finger bone of another woman with a ring still on it a Shapley family heirloom In seeking to find the link between her family s past and the recent murder Emily becomes a threat to a devious and seductive killer who has chosen her as his next victim
