From Soldier to Storyteller Kathleen Broome Williams, Hal M. Friedman, 2024-10-08 Many of the best known and most popular children's stories of the 20th and early 21st century were written by veterans of World War I and World War II These include works by such writers as A A Milne C S Lewis Roald Dahl Ian Fleming and J R R Tolkien among others Although they had experienced war most of the veterans did not overtly write about it The seeming paradox of warriors who went through searing combat and then wrote books for children has not been addressed collectively before now The essays in this book explore what motivated these veterans to write for children what they wrote and how their writing was influenced by the wars they lived through It examines how their combat experience can be traced in their writing however subtly whether it was stories about a bear and his piglet companion a World War I flying ace or a flying car Their reactions to war as reflected in their writing yield important lessons about the complicated legacy of the 20th century's two great conflicts and their long lasting impact through children on society at large

The Climb Up and Away Tom Lewin, 2021-08-26 So you think when you go before the judge you're going to get a fair and unbiased hearing No no no you silly billy Unless you're pristinely clean and even then you have been weighed and measured before you even get in the dock From the senior police officer who puts the word in to the prosecution who then puts the word into the ear of the judge He will even know what you've had for breakfast In my latest court case at Coventry Magistrates Court I was charged with refusing to name the driver of a vehicle that I had sold even though I had informed the police The prosecution caught the eye of the judge and held it Your honour this is a difficult case and there are more serious charges The judge nodded imperceptibly I was found guilty after 5 minutes No witnesses No press You can guess what my chances are for an appeal What serious charges I've heard nothing In September an ex-tenant broke into my house with eight mates in balaclavas and robbed me In April a plumber broke into one of my properties stole a boiler and a waste trap He admitted it on WhatsApp In both cases the police have done nothing No evidence you see The police pick on easy targets to get their results If it's too difficult they turn away
