American Literature as an Expression of the National Mind Russell Blankenship, 2024-12-06 American Literature as an Expression of the National Mind 1931 is a remarkable work that traces not only the history and development of literature in the United States but also the national characteristics that have arisen out of America's unique background By linking the two the author provides great insight into the psychology of America and its great literary heritage

Madeleine Carroll John Pascoe, 2020-04-17 At the height of her celebrity Madeleine Carroll 1906-1987 was the world's highest paid actress She worked alongside such greats as Laurence Olivier and Charles Laughton British directors Victor Saville and Alfred Hitchcock and Hollywood directors John Ford and Otto Preminger She also did radio and television shows all of which she abandoned to become a Red Cross worker Piecing together long lost facts the author describes Carroll's almost indescribable life narrating her personal highs and lows as well as her fervent commitment to helping others particularly child victims of war

The Academy and Literature, 1903

Cervantes and His Postmodern Constituencies Anne J. Cruz, Carroll B. Johnson, 2018-10-24 The essays in this collection represent the first effort in Hispanism to address the conflicted status of Cervantes studies by interrogating the possibility of continued critical dialogue in the context of postmodern theories that threaten to divide into oppositional discourses Comprising broad historical overviews as well as close readings of texts and wielding the rhetoric of scientific detachment and of impassioned political commitments the essays at once exemplify and critique multiple critical positions The collection takes a meaningful and timely look at the formation of cervantismo from the early twentieth century to the prevailing debates on postmodernism and the current crisis of literary studies
