the Art Institute charting the museum's past, present and future vision of what museum education can be and do. Drawing from a rich trove of archival, oral and photographic resources, authors offer a lively account of museum education as an evolving profession, an outlet for aesthetic and political programs and a crucial element of the Art Institute's public mission from the moment of its founding in 1879. The project, sponsored by the Woman's Board of The Art Institute of Chicago to commemorate its fiftieth anniversary, also explores that group's signal commitment to education and volunteerism at the museum, which has ranged from creating suburban community associations to sponsoring a corps of volunteer docents, from establishing a pioneering children's museum to planning celebrations that open the Art Institute's doors to the widest possible public. A pathbreaking effort, this publication constitutes an important, unique contribution to the history of education in American cultural institutions. American Notes & Queries, 1943 Tiepolo's Cleopatra Jaynie Anderson, 2003

Professor Jaynie Anderson is an internationally recognised scholar renowned for her research and publications on the Italian masters. On this occasion she has concentrated on one painting, the National Gallery of Victoria's famous Banquet of Antony and Cleopatra by Giambattista Tiepolo. This glorious work of art, considered a centre piece of the collection, has recently undergone restoration in preparation for the re-opening of the National Gallery on St Kilda Road in December 2003. Jaynie Anderson has collected together a previously under-examined range of Tiepolo's drawings and studies and other versions of the theme by Tiepolo and other Italian artists. She has woven them into the spectacular history of the painting, its production and its various owners prior to coming to Australia, including the Hermitage in St Petersburg, not to mention the fascinating stories of Antony and Cleopatra and their suicides, which the author has researched and retells in great detail and considerable passion. The book concludes with a chapter written by the National Gallery of Victoria's conservators, John Payne and Carl Willis.

Women and Power in the Middle Ages Mary Erler, Maryanne Kowaleski, 1988. Power in medieval society has traditionally been ascribed to figures of public authority: violent knights and conflicting sovereigns who altered the surface of civic life through the exercise of law and force. The wives and consorts of these powerful men have generally been viewed as decorative attendants, while common women were presumed to have had no power or consequence. Reassessing the conventional definition of power that has shaped such portrayals, Women and Power in the Middle Ages reveals the varied manifestations of female power in the medieval household and community, from the cultural power wielded by the wives of Venetian patriarchs to the economic power of English peasant women and the religious power of female saints. Among the specific topics addressed are Griselda's manipulation of silence as power in Chaucer's The Clerk's Tale, the extensive networks of influence devised by Lady Honor Lisle and the role of medieval women book owners as arbiters of lay piety and ambassadors of culture. In every case, the essays seek to transcend simple polarities of public and private, male and female, in order to provide a more realistic analysis of the workings of power in feudal society.
