Morpheme-internal Recursion in Phonology Kuniya Nasukawa, 2020-01-20 Generative phonology aims to formalise two distinct aspects of phonological processes the functional and the representational Since functions operate on representations it is clear that the functional aspect is influenced by the form of representations i.e. different types of representation require different types of rules principles or constraints This volume examines the representational issue in phonology and considers what kind of representation is most appropriate for recent models of generative phonology In particular it provides the first platform for debate on the place of morpheme internal structure and on the formal status of phonology in the language faculty and attempts to identify phonological recursive structure as a means of capturing frequently observed processes

Dispute Resolution within Africa Rashri Baboolal Frank, 2024-12-27 The main topic is dispute resolution within specific Africa countries and the journey of Africa becoming a global leader as the seat of dispute resolution focusing on the mechanisms of mediation arbitration conciliation and negotiation In international commercial transactions it is inviolable that disputes arise and the commercial contracts provide for a med arb clause and parties go to private forums to resolve the dispute Negotiation becomes a key tactic embedded into the mediation techniques and style adopted to ensure success of proceedings If mediation fails then arbitration is the last stage to determine the finality of the dispute when an award is given after hearing evidence this final award is not appealable The journey of Africa being a global leader encouraged partnerships with international institutions practices and trends but it is a journey that is necessary to overtake the European and American seats This book provides scholars with the opportunity to navigate the journey of Africa becoming a main seat for dispute resolution and a leader in the international realm of alternative dispute resolution

Integral Green Zimbabwe Elizabeth Mamukwa,Ronnie Lessem,Alexander Schieffer,2016-05-23 Integral Green Zimbabwe An African Phoenix Rising by Ronnie Lessem Alexander Schieffer and Liz Mamukwa is the first book in the Integral Green Society and Economy series a series which has three overarching aims The first aim is to link together two major movements of our time one philosophical the other practical The philosophical movement is towards what many today are calling an integral age while the practical is the green movement duly aligned with that of sustainable development The second is to blend together elements of nature and community culture and spirituality science and technology politics and economics thus serving to bring about an integral green vision albeit with a focus on business and economics As such the authors transcend the limitations to sustainable development and environmental economics which are overly ecological if not also technological in orientation and exclude social and cultural elements Thirdly this particular volume focuses specifically on Zimbabwe as well as Southern Africa drawing on the particular issues and capacities that this country and region represents The emphasis on Zimbabwe and Southern Africa transpired not only because two of the editors Lessem and Mamukwa are Zimbabwean in origin but because Zimbabwe is today like a phoenix rising from the ashes and has the opportunity to recreate itself anew

Why We Kill Karl

Kemp,2024-03-02 Why do so many South Africans prefer taking the law into their own hands to relying on the police Why are those who do so often cheered or sympathised with Of the unprecedented 27 000 recorded murders in South Africa in 2022 at least 1 894 or 7 per cent were attributed to mob justice and vigilantism more than double the number from five years before In the first nine months of 2023 a further 1 472 mob justice deaths had already been registered Mob justice is nothing new but in recent years it has taken on an undeniably desperate furious edge From the breathtakingly violent Zandspruit massacre in May 2021 to the killings during the July unrest two months later to the march of Operation Dudula across the nation in 2022 vigilantism and the condoning of it has never before captured the zeitgeist of South Africa so sharply What has changed in the past few years and what does it augur for the future Following three recent cases of mob justice from the hellish metropolitan townships of Gauteng to the far flung bushveld of northern Limpopo and drawing on extensive research and interviews Why We Kill explores the roots realities and consequences of South Africa s current crisis of vigilantism

Cross Border Security in the Southern African Region Innocent Moyo,2024-07-29 This book provides a sophisticated analysis of cross border challenges and problems in the southern African region It advances explanations that transcend the state centric narrative that has nationalised cross border security It provides insights from non state actors such as informal cross border traders ICBTs informal cross border transporters undocumented migrants and cross border communities It argues that security needs to be understood beyond a state centric paradigm by focusing on the political economic environmental and societal threats at macro meso and micro levels The book suggests that at the core of cross border security challenges in the Southern African region is a post colonial governmentality This drives the nationalisation of cross border security as though it is the only security leading to nation states in turn depoliticising and invisibilising the security and livelihoods of ordinary people even when nation states claim to be protecting the same The book will be a useful resource for students scholars and researchers of African Studies Border Studies Human Geography Migration Studies Development Studies International Studies International Relations Political Science and Security Studies The Zimbabwean Crisis after Mugabe Tendai Mangena, Oliver Nyambi, Gibson Ncube, 2021-12-30 This book examines the ways in which political discourses of crisis and newness are re produced circulated naturalised received and contested in Post Mugabe Zimbabwe Going beyond the ordinariness of conventional political human and social science methods the book offers new and engaging multi disciplinary approaches that treat discourse and language as important sites to encounter the politics of contested representations of the Zimbabwean crisis in the wake of the 2017 coup The book centres discourse on new approaches to contestations around the discursive framing of various aspects of the socio economic and political crisis related to significant political changes in Zimbabwe post 2017 Contributors in this volume most of whom experienced the complex transition first hand examine some of the ways in which language functions as a socio cultural and political mechanism for creating imaginaries circulating defending and contesting conceptions visions perceptions and knowledges of the post Mugabe turn in the Zimbabwean crisis and its management by the New Dispensation This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies postcolonial studies language discourse studies African politics and culture The End of an Era? Robert Mugabe and a Conflicting Legacy Mawere Munyaradzi, Ngonidzashe Marongwe, 2018-09-17 Arguably one of the most polarising figures in modern times has been Robert Gabriel Mugabe the former President of the Republic of Zimbabwe The mere mentioning of his name raises a lot of debate and often times vicious if not irreconcilable differences both in Zimbabwe and beyond In an article titled Lessons of Zimbabwe Mahmood Mamdani succinctly captures the polarity thus It is hard to think of a figure more reviled in the West than Robert Mugabe and his land reform measures however harsh have won him considerable popularity not just in Zimbabwe but throughout southern Africa This together with his recent stylised ouster speaks volumes to his conflicted legacy The divided opinion on Mugabes legacy can broadly be represented first by those who consider him as a champion of African liberation a Pan Africanist an unmatched revolutionary and an avid anti imperialist who literally spoke the truth to Western imperialists On the other end of the spectrum are those who seemingly paying scant regard to the predicament of millions of black Zimbabweans brutally dispossessed of their land and human dignity since the Rhodesian days have differentially characterised Mugabe as a rabid black fascist an anti white racist an oppressor and a dictator Drawing on all these opinions and characterisations the chapters ensconced in this volume critically reflect on the personality leadership style and contributions of Robert Mugabe during his time in office from 1980 to

November 2017 The volume is timely in view of the current contested transition in Zimbabwe and with regard to the ongoing consultations on the Land Question in neighbouring South Africa It is a handy and richly documented text for students and practitioners in political science African studies economics policy studies development studies and global studies

Ecological Changes in the Zambezi River Basin Mzime Ndebele-Murisa, 2021-01-11 This book provides an analysis of the ecological conditions and ecosystem goods and services of the Zambezi River Basin ZRB the fourth largest river in Africa Various environmental and anthropogenic factors inclusive of climate environmental flows hydrology morphology pollution and land use changes among others and their interactions are considered as drivers of the river ecosystems The impacts of these drivers on aquatic biota river ecological integrity and the livelihoods of surrounding communities are analysed within the socio economic policy context The book goes beyond the usual inventories and basic research by using the comparative research method CRM in a trans disciplinary manner This CRM analytical approach in this book seeks to interrogate the differences or similarities in socio economic systems livelihoods ecological systems ecosystem goods and services their usage and management under the seemingly different cultural socio economic conditions expected across borders that are within the ZRB The multidisciplinary approach also connects the typical ecological research with social dimensions in a holistic manner The book therefore provides empirical and research based evidence to support strategic planning and policy development in the wake of ecological changes that nations and indeed regions such as the ZRB are grappling with while seeking to sustainably manage precious river systems

Naming and Othering in Africa Sambulo Ndlovu, 2021-12-30 This book examines how names in Africa have been fashioned to create dominance and subjugation inclusion and exclusion others and self Drawing on global and African examples but with particular reference to Zimbabwe the author demonstrates how names are used in class race ethnic national gender sexuality religious and business struggles in society as weapons by ingroups and outgroups Using Othering theory as a framework the chapters explore themes such as globalised names and their demonstration of the other onomastic erasure in colonial naming and the subsequent decoloniality in African name changes othering of women in onomastics and crude and sophisticated phaulisms in the areas of race ethnicity nationality disability and sexuality Highlighting social power dynamics through onomastics this book will be of interest to researchers of onomastics social anthropology sociolinguistics and African culture and history
