The Alliance Without Enemy: a Post Cold War History of West Dr. Priyabhishek Sharma, 2019-07-15 This book has the following features When we say West what do we really mean The prologue sets out to explore this question from literary historical strategic philosophical and cultural vantage points In order to understand today

s West different shades of the long and arduous transatlantic dialogue starting with Christopher Columbus's accidental discovery of America to the collapse of Soviet Union have been reasonably accounted for. The second chapter traces back this evolutionary journey in simple easily understandable way. The book has been a fifteen year story of phenomenal change which redefined the very nature of the Western Alliance after the collapse of Soviet Union. Changes in the geopolitical map of Europe emergence of European Union re orientation of NATO and the mutual play between the United States and Europe all throughout the decade of 1990s have been woven into the narrative of this book with the aim to understand how the West if at all has changed. Three major events of post Cold War history the Balkan Crisis the 9 11 and Iraq War 2003 had played major stimulus in re understanding the West. Detailed chronological accounts of these events have been presented before the reader. What are the rationale motivations and implications of EU and NATO's enlargements to the East and how has the enlargement impacted the Alliance. The epilogue reflects upon what has changed and what continues in today's West across different historical phases. How have the schemes of European security in post cold war era been coexisting with the changing face of NATO is yet another theme this book seeks to address.

Indigenist Critical Realism Gracelyn Smallwood, 2015-05-15 Indigenist Critical Realism Human Rights and First Australians Wellbeing consists of a defence of what is popularly known as the Human Rights Agenda in Indigenous Affairs in Australia. It begins with a consideration of the non well being of Indigenous Australians then unfolding a personal narrative of the author Dr Gracelyn Smallwood's family. This narrative is designed not only to position the author in the book but also in its typicality to represent what has happened to so many Indigenous families in Australia. The book then moves to a critical engagement with dominant intellectual positions such as those advanced by commentators such as Noel Pearson Peter Sutton Gary Johns and Keith Windschuttle. The author argues that intellectuals such as these have to a great extent colonised what passes for common sense in mainstream Australia. This common sense straddles the domains of history health and education and Dr Smallwood has chosen to follow her adversaries into all of these areas. This critique is anchored by a number of key philosophical concepts developed by the Critical Realist philosopher Roy Bhaskar. The book advances and analyses a number of case studies some well known even notorious such as the Hindmarsh Island Affair South Australia and the Northern Territory Intervention others like that of the author's late nephew Lyji Vaggs Qld and Aboriginal Elder May Dunne Qld much less so. Representing one of the first attempts to engage at a critical and intellectual level in this debate by an Indigenous activist this book is essential reading for students and scholars interested in Critical Realism and colonialism.
