

Those professionals who stand out from the crowd have often achieved this through a carefully executed strategy - one implemented over several years.

Ways to build your market profile and professional reputation

To forge a strong network and attract new work opportunities, professionals need to have a profile and reputation which is well-known and respected in their chosen markets.

Professionals who do stand out from the crowd appeal to both clients and referrers alike. Such visibility and preference isn't usually achieved by chance; it is more likely the result of a carefully executed strategy – often implemented over several years.

That strategy is ever-evolving to reflect changes in the type of work being done, market conditions, the professional's network and their developing specialisms and interests.

In this Winning Business Digest, we've shared practical ways to help you build a strong market profile and professional reputation.
