One More Chance Shyam Skha, Prologue The seed of this story germinated during an air trip I was waiting in a lounge at an airport I happened to overhear the conversation of a young couple sitting behind my seat It looked like that they had been recently gotten married I could guess from their conversation that they were migrating to America The husband was telling the wife that he felt guilty for leaving his mother behind Within half an hour the wife convinced the husband that he should find a partner for the mother that is the mother should get married Initially the husband had doubts whether his mother would be ready for this or not But his wife cajoled him so much that not only did the husband agree but very soon he was discussing preparing a profile for his mother s matrimonial alliance This episode aroused my interest in the subject It took me almost three years to research the topic of adult remarriage Thus this story about divorced or widowed men and women who are forced by their loneliness to look for a soul mate came into being How the lonely people decide to start a new life with a new partner and choose the Internet portal in their search and their experiences as they journey through their search is the one of the focal point of this novel The story at first glance appears like opening a Pandora s box as it is filled with many emotional shades and bizarre looking situations The characters in this story have been taken from life around us which are ubiquitous but scarcely noticed The story unveils various shades of our liberated society I was sometimes astounded by the newfound courage sensuality and sexuality along with the inner struggle longing and getting rid of age old inhibitions in the newly liberated women The readers may find spelling and grammar mistakes in some parts of the book these are deliberately inserted to keep the essence of chatting and mailing as it happens in real life on the internet In chatting no one bothers about spelling or grammar words like bro txt are just written to convey the fast message The characters in the novel bear no resemblance to a person or persons living or dead Art is the depiction of life coloured with imagination Shyam Skha shyamskha1973 gmail com DRMoudgill
