

College Admission Essay

Think About Your Purpose - Not “selling yourself ” or “getting in,” but simply being yourself—which usually means writing about yourself in human, rather than superhuman, terms. For example, if your transcript reveals that you are a stellar student of French, you might write about the time a Parisian pointedly responded in English to your request in French for directions to the Louvre.

Focus - Instead of generalizing your experience, for example saying something like, “I enjoy sports”, be as specific as you can be. Write about the thrill of catching a fly ball deep to centerfield just before it became a home run, or of a Little League career spent waiting for someone, anyone, to hit the ball to your position so that you could stop studying the grass and watching the butterflies.

Use Precise And Descriptive Language - Imagine that each word you write costs you a dollar, and that you don’t have unlimited funds. Instead of writing “On a yearly basis, we would spend five hours driving to the lake, where I never gave up the hope of meeting the boy that would be my Prince Charming,” write “Every August, we trekked to Lake Apponaug, where I always hoped to meet my Prince Charming.”

Give Your Essay Momentum - Make the parts work together and move toward a thoughtful conclusion. In an essay about the summer you spent working in a marine research laboratory, a paragraph on the unreliable bus that took you there each day should be eliminated.

Use Correct Grammar, Spelling, and Punctuation - Don’t distract your reader from what you’re stating by stating it incorrectly. Misspellings, typos, and grammatical errors—such as subjects that don’t agree with verbs—make the reader’s task more difficult and suggest that you don’t care much about the impression you make. Although nobody’s perfect, strive for perfection on your application. Unfortunately, your reader may interpret your mistakes, no matter how innocent, to be signs of laziness, indifference, or even dishonesty.

The Applica-Phobia of College Admissions P. J. Finer, 2007-08-28

If you are preparing to apply to colleges and universities in the United States you need this book

College is one of the most expensive investment students will make

Therefore helping students find the right college for them not only makes for happy students but helps parents feel more confident about the result

College is not only a big decision that students have to make but it is also the foundation of their future success

Students and parents are discovering that schools that a few years ago were considered second and even third tier schools have elevated their standards significantly

With substantially more students applying and in some cases fewer spots available for the select colleges across the country schools are demanding higher grades and have higher test score criteria which seemingly place college out of reach

The applicant pool changes annually thus nothing is carved in stone as to which students are accepted and which are not

However the best chance of getting in to the school of your choice is to display your passion as to where you are headed in life starting in 9th grade

High school seniors and college transfer students know how difficult it is to get into the top tier colleges today

Creating a persuasive eye catching application requires creativity foresight and a marketable presentation as to what you can offer that will attract schools

That is why the process has to start with a resume

The student applying to college today must show schools why they are different from every other student applying

If you showcase your abilities through the development of a talented resume and a strong essay admissions committees will have no choice but to fall in love with you

Students must figure out how best to present themselves to admissions committees difficulties arise when students begin feeling anxiety their parents begin applying real or perceived pressure and the student crumbles

The Applica phobia of College Admissions

Why Getting in Starts With Your Resume is a how to guide for students navigating the Applica phobia of the application process

Oftentimes students don't know where to start and the entire experience becomes overwhelming

This book offers a program that assists students by mapping out the plan that will best suit them

The book addresses how to explore your talents skills and aspirationsto create a picture of who you are how to identify the schools that are right for you how to determine which type of application to submit early action vs early decision binding vs non binding

exercises to help determine what you can bring to a college or university that will create interest
