The Jesus I Knew Robert M. Walker, 1996 In The Jesus I Knew Robert Martin Walker combines two methods of storytelling narrative and autobiography to present more than two dozen creative portrayals of Gospel characters Starting with the biblical text and then imagining how a character would narrate the story from his or her own point of view Walker transports readers into the Gospel story enabling persons to identify with the Gospel characters as the real persons they were and to see Jesus through the eyes of those who knew him best What finally emerges from the portrayals is a picture of who Jesus was and is As readers hear the Gospel message in a new and fresh way through these distinctive witnesses to the birth ministry passion and resurrection of Jesus Christ their own faith will be enriched and enlivened Each portrayal begins with a Scripture reference and is followed by a brief prayer and questions for reflection and discussion Character portrayals include Mary and Joseph Herod the Great John the Baptizer The Rich Young Man Mary and Martha Nicodemus the woman at the well Lazarus Judas Iscariot Peter the Rock Zacchaeus Pilate Joseph of Arimathea two disciples on the road to Emmaus and others House Documents USA House of Representatives, 1868 Mystery Fanfare Michael L. Cook, 1983 This work is a composite index of the complete runs of all mystery and detective fan magazines that have been published through 1981 Added to it are indexes of many magazines of related nature This includes magazines that are primarily oriented to boys book collecting the paperbacks and the pulp magazine hero characters since these all have a place in the mystery and detective genre The United States Government Manual .2000 At the End of the Day Rev. James W. Moore, 2010-09-01 At the end of the day what will people say about you If folks were totally candid totally honest how would your epitaph read In the Talmud it is suggested that to be successful in this life you should plant a tree have a child or write a book This means you should be sure that you have exerted an influence for good in this life that lives on after your days are on earth are done In each chapter popular author James W Moore asks the question Just how will you be remembered as one who knew Christ's healing love who celebrated the joy of the journey who knew the Gift of the Holy Spirit who knew how to trust the right things who knew the power of compassion who knew how to teach children the key things in life who knew the importance of prayer who knew right from wrong who knew the significance of the battle within who knew the power of words who knew that great gettin up mornin who knew how to be beautifully extravagant who knew how to be a real friend who knew how to close the gate The book's epilogue provides some valuable insight into how to become that kind of person and is called Making Every Day Count Also included in the book is a study guide Federal Advisory Committees United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs. Subcommittee on Energy, Nuclear Proliferation, and Federal Services, 1978 Federal Advisory Committees United States. Congress. Senate.
