Journalism and Human Rights John C. Pollock, 2017-10-02 This book is the first collection of original research to explore links between demographics and media coverage of emerging human rights issues It covers cross national reporting on human trafficking HIV AIDS water contamination and child labour and same sex marriage Guantanamo detainee rights immigration reform and post traumatic stress disorder in the United States The research asks questions such as What are the principal catalysts that propel rights issues into media agendas Why do some surface more quickly than others And how do the demographics of cross national reporting differ from those driving multi city US nationwide coverage of rights claims Using community structure theory and innovative Media Vector content analysis the eight chapters of this book reveal three striking patterns that show how differences in female empowerment social or economic vulnerability and Midwestern newspaper geographic location link powerfully with variations in coverage of rights issues The patterns connecting demographics and rights claims confirm that coverage of human rights can mirror the concerns of stakeholders and vulnerable groups contrary to conventional assumptions that media typically serve as guard dogs reinforcing the interests of political and economic elites This book was originally published as a special issue of The Atlantic Journal of Communication

Palestine-Israel in the Print News Media Luke Peterson, 2014-10-24 Israel Palestine in the Print News Media Contending Discourses is concerned with conceptions of language knowledge and thought about political conflict in the Middle East in two national news media communities the United States and the United Kingdom Arguing for the existence of national perspectives which are constructed distributed and reinforced in the print news media this study provides a detailed linguistic analysis of print news media coverage of four recent events in the Palestinian Israeli conflict in order to examine ideological patterns present in print news media coverage The two news communities are compared for lexical choices in news stories about the conflict attribution of agency in the discussion of conflict events the inclusion or exclusion of historical context in explanations of the conflict and reliance upon essentialist elements during and within print representations of Palestine Israel The book also devotes space to first hand testimony from journalists with extensive experience covering the conflict from within both news media institutions Unifying various avenues of academic enquiry reflecting upon the acquisition of information and the development of knowledge this book will be of interest to those seeking a new approach to the Palestinian Israeli conflict

Qualitative Researching with Text, Image and Sound Paul Atkinson, Martin W Bauer, George Gaskell, 2000-06-22 This handbook provides a critical guide to the past present and future of ethnography

The Press as Public Educator Colin Lacey, David Longman, 1997 Looking at media education and the environment this book argues that it is essential to examine their connections and the adequacy of these relationships for the future The focus is on the educational function of the press and the problem that forms a context for this focus is the environment Web

Journalism:// Sean Tunney, 2009-12-03 Provides an analytical account of the implications of interactive participation in the construction of media content This work seeks to critically assess Internet news production It is suitable for those engaged in the debate over Web reporting and citizen journalism Northwest Anthropological Research Notes Roderick Resistance Advocacy as News Benjamin Rex LaPoe II, Victoria L. LaPoe, 2018-01-30 Resistance Advocacy as News Digital Black Press Covers the Tea Party examines the Black and mainstream press's digital interpretations of the Tea Party during President Barack Obama's first term The Tea Party narrative and the white ideologies disseminated by conservative groups was and continues to be an intricate story for journalists to tell This book tracks coverage of the Tea Party from the modern group's beginning in early February of 2009 until two weeks after the 2012 general presidential election in November While many mainstream journalists either fail to recognize or ignore all together the racial component that the Tea Party poses to Black solidarity this book shows that Black reporters working for the Black press absolutely recognize the racial component and provide more thorough discussions than their mainstream counterparts Historically the Black press has existed to fill holes of misrepresentation in the mainstream press to that end this book addresses questions surrounding the ongoing necessity of the Black press and whether our society is postracial combining a quantitative analysis of implicit racial frames with a qualitative analysis of resonant myth and providing empirical evidence that Black people still struggle to have their voices heard in the mainstream press Primary Industries Facing Global Markets Frank Asche, 2006 Food producers and other producers of primary products such as forestry increasingly face international competition and the markets for their products increasingly become globalized This process can provide promising opportunities to reach new markets and to increase value added by marketing new products But there are challenges though as new competitors show up in the domestic markets and access to the retail outlets is denied Norway is a country with a successful export oriented aquaculture industry and more protected forestry and agricultural sectors This book explores some of the lessons learned from these sectors in coping with international competition and in exploiting the opportunities that are offered by more open markets The perspectives adopted come from marketing economics as well as multidisciplinary social sciences Each perspective is essential to paint a reliable picture of the opportunities and challenges facing primary industries Project Work, Second Edition Diana L. Fried-Booth, 2002-04-11 Provides a variety of accessible ideas for projects inside and outside the classroom This work features tasks that give participants the chance to improve their competence in the four skills as well as in useful areas such as giving presentations making a video and producing reports and articles Politics and Rhetoric of Italian State Steel Privatisation Edoardo Mollona, Luca Pareschi, 2022-05-17 The globally spreading privatisation wave that occurred in the 1990s deeply changed the structure of economic institutions worldwide This turmoil overturned not only economic institutions but shared cultural and societal institutions as well This book is the result of an investigation into the history of the privatisation of the steel industry in Italy completed between 1994 and 1995 It explores the history of the Italian steel industry by looking at the interplay of local intertwined interests political relations and ideological formations that characterised an idiosyncratic hegemonic historical bloc Rather than stigmatising this pattern as the legacy of a dysfunctional provincialism the authors mobilise Gramsci's theory of hegemony to explain how the Italian privatisation process unfolded to accommodate economic pressures political interests and ideological constraints of a hegemonic social group or aggregation of social groups Thus in reconstructing the privatisation of Italian steel this book proposes a hegemony theory of privatisation and more generally describes a model that explains how political and cultural dynamics give rise to idiosyncratic local variations in globally spreading policies It will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of business history economics sociology and political science

The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Body and Embodiment Natalie Boero, Katherine Mason, 2020-11-02 In popular debates over the influences of nature versus culture on human lives bodies are often assigned to the category of nature biological essential and pre social The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Body and Embodiment challenges that view arguing that bodies both shape and get shaped by human societies As such the body is an appropriate and necessary area of study for sociologists The Handbook works to clarify the scope of this topic and display the innovations of research within the field The volume is divided into three main parts Bodies and Methodology Marginalized Bodies and Embodied Sociology Sociologists contributing to the first two parts focus on the body and the ways it is given meaning regulated and subjected to legal and medical oversight in a variety of social contexts particularly when the body in question violates norms for how a culture believes bodies ought to behave or appear Sociologists contributing to the last part use the body as a lens through which to study social institutions and experiences These social settings range from personal decisions about medical treatment to programs for teaching police recruits how to use physical force from social movement tactics to countries understandings of race and national identity The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of the Body also prioritizes empirical evidence and methodological rigor attending to the ways particular lives are lived in particular physical bodies located within particular cultural and institutional contexts Many chapters offer extended methodological reflections providing guidance on how to conduct sociological research on the body and at times acknowledging the role the authors own bodies play in developing their knowledge of the research subject

Criminal Justice and Criminology Research Methods Peter B. Kraska, John J. Brent, W. Lawrence Neuman, 2020-12-30 Criminal Justice and Criminology Research Methods Third Edition is an accessible and engaging text that offers balanced coverage of a full range of contemporary research methods Filled with gritty criminal justice and criminology examples including policing corrections evaluation research forensics feminist studies juvenile justice crime theory and criminal justice theory this new edition demonstrates how research is relevant to the field and what tools are needed to actually conduct that research Kraska Brent and Neuman write in a pedagogically friendly style yet without sacrificing rigor offering balanced coverage of qualitative quantitative and mixed methods With its exploration of the thinking behind science and its cutting edge content the text goes beyond the nuts and bolts to teach students how to competently critique as well as create research based knowledge This book is suitable for undergraduate and early graduate students in US and global Criminology Criminal Justice and Justice Studies programs as well as for senior scholars concerned with incorporating the latest mixed methods approaches into their research

Technology-Enhanced Language Teaching and Learning Karim Sadeghi, Michael Thomas, Farah Ghaderi, 2023-02-23 The Covid 19 pandemic has directly impacted the way teachers and learners worldwide teach and learn languages forcing numerous educational activities in technologically deprived contexts to stop altogether and those in technologically rich environments to go online on an emergency basis This volume provides a collection of theoretical and practical insights into the challenges and affordances faced globally during the pandemic and lessons learnt about the application of digital technologies for language teaching and learning The chapters explore the vital role of technology in its various forms including the internet social media CALL Computer Assisted Language Learning MALL Mobile Assisted Language Learning TALL Technology Assisted Language Learning and TELL Technology Enhanced Language Learning Topics explored include the new avenues digital technology has opened up for language teachers and learners options and challenges in applying technology in various contexts and how the second language education industry could have been adversely impacted at the time of the pandemic without technological affordances The contributions showcase studies from various geographical contexts revealing how the global crisis was received and tackled differently in Australia Hong Kong Iran Italy Japan New Zealand the UAE the UK and the USA
