Caroline Margaret Kelly

Scenario For The 2014 Comrade Marathon Tour:

No Chains Around My Feet Nomoya M Mahlangu, 2017-11-06 This book closely examines how the enterprise of running mirrors the key facets of life The author draws parallels between running and life so as to enhance the lessons that readers can draw from each of these phenomena Running resembles life and the latter carries a myriad of lessons for the former This book is not about running per se nor is it meant to be an all encompassing self help manual about life though it contains these aspects to a certain degree Such an undertaking would be preposterous in the least You can however draw valuable lessons for personal mastery within organizational societal and familial relationships and other relationship contexts The books purpose is to drive the dual message that invisible chains shackle an unexamined life and that the activity of running competitively or not entails a lot of principles processes guidelines theories and lessons that can apply to everyday life experiences and enhance the human experience Consequently the book is meant for professional and social runners and those who appreciate running from the comfort of their couch remote in hand It explores the seemingly and misleadingly easy exercise of running as a source for profound lessons about the sometimes complex business of living

Culture and Rural-Urban Revitalisation in South Africa Mziwoxolo Sirayi, Modimowabarwa Kanyane, Giulio Verdini, 2021-06-14 This book captures ground breaking attempts to utilise culture in territorial development and regeneration processes in the context of South Africa and our new normal brought by COVID 19 the fourth industrial revolution and climate change the world over The importance of culture in rural urban revitalisation has been underestimated in South Africa and the African continent at large Despite some cultural initiatives that are still at developmental stages in big cities such as Johannesburg eThekweni and Cape Town there is concern about the absence of sustainable policies and plans to support culture creativity and indigenous knowledge at national and municipal levels Showcasing alternative strategies for making culture central to development this book discusses opportunities to shift culture and indigenous knowledge from the peripheries and place them at the epicentre of sustainable development and the mainstream of cultural planning which can then be applied in the contexts of Africa and the Global South Governmental institutions research councils civil society organisations private sector and higher education institutions come together in a joint effort to explain the nexus between culture economic development rural urban linkages grassroots and technological innovations Culture and Rural Urban Revitalization in South Africa is an ideal read for those interested in rural and urban planning cultural policy indigenous knowledge and smart rural village model
