Cathy Parker, David Thomas

Northern Lights Chapter 18:

Eighteen Wheels North to Alaska Cliff Bishop, 2009-10-01 In spite of the obstacles the Alaska truckers were presented with they never weakened in their determination to get the job done These pioneer drivers never conquered or tamed Alaska's roads and weather but they learned to operate on the back trails and paths always making their way to the trip's end In spite of all the challenges they never quit The following from Teddy Roosevelt is an appropriate salute to Alaskan truckers It is not the critic who counts not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles or where the doer of deeds could have done better The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood who strives valiantly who errs and comes up short again and again because there is no effort without error or shortcoming but who knows the great enthusiasms the great devotions who spends himself for a worthy cause who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement and who at the worst if he fails at least he fails while daring greatly so that high place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who knew neither victory nor defeat Eighteen Wheels North to Alaska A History of Trucking in Alaska is the story of Alaskan drivers who guided coaxed pushed pulled plowed and somehow made it to the end of the road and beyond over high mountain passes whiteout conditions seventy below zero temperature through mud muck and tundra terrain even onto the Arctic Ocean ice beyond the shore Warrior Pups Jeff Kamen, 2017-09-01

Thomas, 2019-06-25 Life is hard in Barrow Alaska Football mom Cathy Parker first caught a glimpse of this far away reality from the comfort of her Jacksonville Florida living room while watching a 2006 ESPN report on the Barrow Whalers a high school football team consisting mostly of Alaskan Inupiat Eskimo natives playing in the most difficult of conditions and trying to overcome the most unlikely of odds These players raised in the northernmost town in the United States where drug abuse is rampant and the high school dropout rate is high found themselves playing on a gravel field using flour to draw the lines And while the community of Barrow felt a strong pride for their boys many felt football was not worth the investment That is until Cathy Parker became involved Overcome by a surprising stirring in her soul to reach out and help Cathy was determined to build a suitable field for the Barrow Whalers Not fully understanding the many obstacles both financially and logistically that would line the path ahead Cathy charged forward with a determined spirit and a heart for both the football team and the greater community of Barrow She spearheaded a campaign that raised more than half a million dollars through people all around the country rallying around one common goal changing the lives of young men through football This is not just the story of how the Barrow Whalers became the first high school above the Arctic Circle to have a football program This is the story of how we are sometimes called to the most unlikely of causes and to believe in something a little bit bigger changing our own lives and the lives of others for the better in the most unexpected of ways The Ninja of the Northern
