Not Looking For Love Episode 5 Volume 5:

New Woman Fiction, 1881-1899, Part II vol 5 Carolyn W de la L Oulton, Adrienne E Gavin, SueAnn Schatz, Vybarr Cregan-Reid, 2017-09-29 Covers four texts from the 1890s that helped to crystallize the idea of the New Woman during a period where the role of women was increasingly debated and challenged not least due to the growth of the suffrage movement

Xenophon's Ephesiaca Aldo Tagliabue, 2017-09-25 After many decades of neglect the last forty years have seen a renewed scholarly appreciation of the literary value of the Greek novel Within this renaissance of interest four monographs have been published to date which focus on individual novels I refer to the specialist studies of Achilles Tatius by Morales and Laplace and those of Chariton of Aphrodisias by Smith and Tilg This book adds to this short list and takes as its singular focus Xenophon's Ephesiaca Among the five fully extant Greek novels the Ephesiaca occupies the position of being an anomaly since scholars have conventionally considered it to be either a poorly written text or an epitome of a more sophisticated lost original This monograph challenges this view by arguing that the author of the Ephesiaca is a competent writer in artistic control of his text insofar as his work has a coherent and emplotted focus on the protagonists progression in love and also includes references to earlier texts of the classical canon not least Homer's Odyssey and the Platonic dialogues on Love At the same time the Ephesiaca exhibits stylistically an overall simplicity contains many repetitions and engages with other texts via a thematic rather than a pointed type of intertextuality these and other features make this text different from the other extant Greek novels This book explains this difference with the help of Cougnas view of paraliterature a term that refers not to its status as non literature but rather to literature of a different kind that is simple action oriented and entertaining By offering a definition of the Ephesiaca as a paraliterary narrative this monograph sheds new light on this novel and its position within the Greek novelistic corpus whilst also offering a more nuanced understanding of intertextuality and paraliterature

Placing Elysium in Renaissance Britain Patrick Cheney,2025-10-02

Placing Elysium in Renaissance Britain Poetry Politics Theology Eros is the first study of Elysium as a place in English Renaissance culture The absence of such a study in the fields of literature and geography is surprising from its captivating origin in the oceanic margins of Homer s Odyssey to its presence in the Eden of Milton s Paradise Lost Elysium is a destination to be desired it is the land of the blessed As such Elysium becomes a geographical site for an author s most valued space In Britannia Camden provides leadership for this project by citing Plutarch as locating the blessed place in Britain Following Camden Spenser centralizes the idea of Britain as Elysium Subsequently English authors make the Elysian place the site of a liberating sublimity as the height of artistic renown This authorial template becomes the site for literary inflections in the realms of politics theology and eros However Kyd and Marlowe darken the Spenserian project recalling

Virgil's geographical positioning of Elysium next to Hell. In turn Drayton, Chapman and Marston champion the Spenserian idea of Britain as Elysium. As this conversation suggests, English authors make Elysium the central place of the Renaissance period concept and they do so in the nation building genre of epic. In The Muses Elizium, Drayton crowns the Spenserian tradition by making the blessed place the monomyth of national poetry. At the centre of the monomyth is the cherished ideal of Renaissance culture: the Elysian capacity of the human to become divine. East European Accessions Index, 1953

The Ministry, Vol. 06, No. 06 Various Authors, 2002-06-01. In this issue of The Ministry we include the final eight messages of The Visions of Ezekiel concerning God's Economy given during the 2001 fall term of the Full time Training in Anaheim. The book of Ezekiel is composed of four main sections. The first section concerns the vision of the appearance of the Lord's glory. The next section concerns God's judgment both on His disobedient and wayward people and on the nations. The third section concerns the Lord's recovery by life. The first message of this volume deals with the vision of the throne above the clear sky. The highest point in our Christian experience and in our living as Christians in the church life is not simply to have a crystal clear sky. We need to reach the highest point where we see the man on the throne and realize that God's goal is to have many men on the throne with Christ as the God man. The last message of this series focuses on the last section of Ezekiel on the vision of the holy building of God. Next to God Himself this is perhaps the greatest matter in the Bible because it involves the totality of God's work in His economy through the ages to produce an expression of Himself. Last of all we include a report of the first International Blending Conference in Accra, Ghana, held in March 2002.
