Not Wanted On The Voyage:

Not Wanted on the Voyage Timothy Findley, 1996 Not Wanted on the Voyage is the story of the great flood and the first time the world ended filled with an extraordinary cast of remarkable characters With pathos and pageantry desperation and hope magic and mythology this acclaimed novel weaves its unforgettable spell Timothy Findley's Novels Between Ethics and Postmodernism Dagmar Krause, 2005 Timothy Findley 1930 2002 is one of the most important contemporary Canadian writers His novels have been classified as postmodern exhibiting characteristic features such as parody historiographic metafiction and hybrid genres This classification of Findley as a postmodern writer however largely neglects the fact that Findley is deeply committed to the exploration of certain ethical and political themes Recurring topics in his work are for instance fascism environmental concerns and the problem of responsibility Sparked off by the fascinating question of how postmodernism and ethics can be reconciled at all and inspired by the so called ethical turn in the literary theory of the 1990s this study supplies a closer look at Findley's ethics with regard to its postmodern potential A detailed analysis of five of his novels The Wars Famous Last Words Not Wanted on the Voyage The Telling of Lies and Headhunter explores the ethical dimension of Findley's work and its consequences for his categorization as a postmodern writer Canadian Science

Fiction and Fantasy David Ketterer, 1992 The Empire Writes Back Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2003-12-16 The experience of colonization and the challenges of a post colonial world have produced an explosion of new writing in English This diverse and powerful body of literature has established a specific practice of post colonial writing in cultures as various as India Australia the West Indies and Canada and has challenged both the traditional canon and dominant ideas of literature and culture The Empire Writes Back was the first major theoretical account of a wide range of post colonial texts and their relation to the larger issues of post colonial culture and remains one of the most significant works published in this field The authors three leading figures in post colonial studies open up debates about the interrelationships of post colonial literatures investigate the powerful forces acting on language in the post colonial text and show how these texts constitute a radical critique of Eurocentric notions of literature and language This book is brilliant not only for its incisive analysis but for its accessibility for readers new to the field Now with an additional chapter and an updated bibliography The Empire Writes Back is essential for contemporary post colonial studies The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin

Heidenreich, 1989-10-31 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan s hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy s social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel s narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions

Mythmaking across Boundaries Züleyha Çetiner-Öktem,2016-04-26 This volume explores the dynamics of myths throughout time and space along with the mythmaking processes in various cultures literatures and languages in a wide range of fields ranging from cultural studies to the history of art The papers brought together here are motivated by two basic questions How are myths made in diverse cultures and literatures And do all different cultures have different myths to be told in their artistic pursuits To examine these questions the book offers a wide array of articles by contributors from various cultures which focus on theory history space place philosophy literature language gender and storytelling Mythmaking across Boundaries not only brings together classical myths but also contemporary constructions and reconstructions through different cultural perspectives by transcending boundaries Using a wide spectrum of perspectives this volume instead of emphasising the different modes of the mythmaking process connects numerous perceptions of mythmaking and investigates diversities among cultures languages and literatures viewing them as a unified whole As the essays reflect on both academic and popular texts the book will be useful to scholars and students as well as the general reader

Imagined Commonwealth T.J. Cribb,1999-02-12 This collection includes contributions from some of the major authors in the field The critical essays have been chosen to open up possibilities mark out boundaries and set objectives in the ever expanding field of international literature in English The writers themselves are the principal guides and resources for this enterprise New literary and critical practices are derived from the problematic role of English as an international language and from its relations with other languages Values of cultural difference and particularity are emphasised And the Birds Began to Sing Jamie S. Scott,1996 Taking as its starting point the ambiguous heritage left by the British Empire to its former colonies dominions and possessions And the Birds Began to Sing marks a new departure in the interdisciplinary study of religion and literature Gathered under the rubric Christianity and Colonialism essays on Brian Moore Timothy Findley Margaret Atwood and Marian Engel Thomas King Les A Murray David Malouf Mudrooroo and Philip McLaren R A K Mason Maurice Gee Keri Hulme Epeli Hau ofa J M Coetzee Christopher Okigbo Chinua Achebe Amos Tutuola and Ngugi wa Thiong o explore literary portrayals of the effects of British Christianity upon settler and native cultures in Northern Ireland Canada Australia New Zealand and the South Pacific and the Africas These essays share a sense of the dominant presence of Christianity as an inherited system of religious thought and practice to be adapted to changing post colonial conditions or to be resisted as the lingering ideology of colonial times In the second section of the collection Empire and World Religions essays on Paule Marshall and George Lamming Jean Rhys Olive Senior and Caribbean poetry V S Naipaul Anita Desai Kamala Markandaya and Bharati Mukherjee interrogate literature exploring relations between the scions of British imperialism and religious traditions other than Christianity Expressly concerned with literary embodiments of belief systems in post colonial cultures particularly West African religions in the Caribbean and Hinduism on the Indian subcontinent these essays also share a sense of Christianity as the pervasive presence of an ideological rhetoric among the economic social and political dimensions of imperialism In a polemical Afterword the editor argues that modes of reading religion and literature in post colonial cultures are characterised by a theodical preoccupation with a praxis of equity

The Cape of Good Hope and Port Natal: where they are, and how to get to them Henry Capper, 1858 Veronica Brady Kieran Dolin, Tony Hughes-d'Aeth, Doiminic Hyde, 2018-11-01

Veronica Brady 1929 2015 was a nun academic and activist Her intellectual life firmly rooted in Australian culture was focussed on stripping the thin veneer of our dominant materialistic culture to forge a greater understanding of our place in a more just world One time member of the ABC Board Brady was a wine loving bike riding diminutive figure with a fierce reputation for plain speaking An expert on Australian literature and living life as a communist in a community of Loreto nuns teaching she cut a non conformist figure in an age when the humanist values she upheld seemed increasingly under threat She strove to defend them with a sharp mind a contemporary Christian theology and a willingness to put her boots on the ground in street protests The essays gathered here by colleagues students friends and family bring her compassion interests and concerns to life with an immediacy fondness and respect She inspired others through her writings actions and teaching and the essays reveal her larger than life character her passion for teaching her concerns for justice for Indigenous Australians and the intellectual and spiritual legacy she bequeathed to us all
