The Author as Cannibal Felisa Vergara Reynolds,2022 In the first decades after the end of French rule Francophone authors engaged in an exercise of rewriting narratives from the colonial literary canon In The Author as Cannibal Felisa Vergara Reynolds presents these textual revisions as figurative acts of cannibalism and examines how these literary cannibalizations critique colonialism and its legacy in each author s homeland Reynolds focuses on four representative texts Une temp te 1969 by Aim C saire Le temps de Tamango 1981 by Boubacar Boris Diop L amour la fantasia 1985 by Assia Djebar and La migration des coeurs 1995 by Maryse Cond Though written independently in Africa and the Caribbean these texts all combine critical adaptation with creative destruction in an attempt to eradicate the social political cultural and linguistic remnants of colonization long after independence The Author as Cannibal situates these works within Francophone studies showing that the extent of their postcolonial critique is better understood when they are considered collectively Crucial to the book are two interviews with Maryse Cond which provide great insight on literary cannibalism By foregrounding thematic concerns and writing strategies in these texts Reynolds shows how these rewritings are an underappreciated collective form of protest and resistance for Francophone authors
