

THE ROMAN EMPIRE IN THE FIRST CENTURY

Rome Lesson Plan 4: Mapping an Empire

Introduction:

In this lesson, students will compare a map of the Roman Empire in 44 BC with one of the Roman Empire in 116 AD. Using these two maps as a reference, students will use critical reading skills to learn about the expansion of the Roman Empire during that time period. Relying on the resources available on The Roman Empire in the First Century Web site [<http://www.pbs.org/empires/romans/index.html>], students will learn about which countries/ territories were conquered by each Roman emperor. After reviewing basic map skills and information, students will use the data collected to construct their own maps documenting the historical expansion of the Roman Empire. They will then use the data represented on the map to draw conclusions about the effectiveness of specific emperors as well as the positive and negative aspects of expanding the Roman Empire so much in such a short time.

Subject Areas:

World History, Social Studies, Geography, and Communication Arts

Grade Level: 6-12

Lesson Objectives:

Students will:

1. Compare two different maps and make estimates about the growth of the Roman Empire during the first century.
2. Use primary source materials to gather facts about the expansion of the Roman Empire including the names of conquered countries/territories, the approximate date these lands were added to the empire, and which emperor was responsible for these expansions.
3. Participate in a review of map skills and the key components of maps to prepare for creating their own maps.
4. Work in pairs to create maps that show the historical expansion of the Roman Empire between 44 BC and 116 AD.
5. Analyze the maps they have created to draw conclusions about the expansion of the Roman Empire and how its size may have contributed to its downfall.
6. Complete a series of written response questions with their partner based on their analysis of the map they created.
7. Participate in a class discussion about the expansion of Rome using the conclusions they reached from analyzing the map and their answer to the written response questions.

Hollywood or History? Scott L. Roberts,Charles J. Elfer,2021-01-01 The challenges of teaching history are acute where we consider the world history classroom Generalized world history courses are a part of many if not most K 12 curricular frameworks in the United States While United States history tends to dominate the scholarship and conversation there are an equally wide number of middle level and secondary students and teachers engaged in the study of world history in our public schools And the challenges are real In the first place if we are to mark content coverage as a curricular obstacle in the history classroom generally then we must underscore that concern in the world history classroom and for obvious reasons The curricular terrain to choose from is immense and forever expanding dealing with the development of numerous civilizations over millennia and across a wide geographic expanse In addition to curricular concerns world historical topics are inherently farther away from most students lives not just temporally but often geographically and culturally Thus the rationale for the present text Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Teach World History The reviews of the first volume Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Teach United States History strategy have been overwhelmingly positive especially as it pertains to the application of the strategy for practitioner Classroom utility and teacher practice have remained our primary objectives in developing the Hollywood or History strategy and we are encouraged by the possibilities of Volume II and the capacity of this most recent text to impact teaching and learning in world history We believe that students connection to film along with teachers ability to use film in an effective manner will help alleviate some of the challenges of teaching world history The book provides 30 secondary lesson plans grades 6 12 that address nine eras in world history
