Fuertes-Olivera, 2010-03-26 The need for constructing a lexicographical theory with a particular focus on specialised dictionaries for learners is well documented in recent publications This will imply paying attention to at least four basic lexicographic categories learners the learner's situation the learner's needs dictionary assistance In one or other way these categories are analysed in this book whose eleven chapters are grouped into three parts Part 1 reflects on some of the main ideas defended by the function theory of lexicography perhaps the theoretical framework that has paid more attention to specialised lexicography Part 2 presents some proposals that have already been explored in the field of general learner's dictionary and must be incorporated into specialised metalexicography cultural aspects figurative meaning the inclusion of grammatical information the use of corpora Part 3 introduces the state of play regarding specialised dictionaries in China and offers some ideas for coping with the proliferation of terminological glossaries in Internet The book also describes Enrique Alcaraz s academic achievements together with some personal anecdotes and a personal short tribute to his memory
