Dear Immigration Officer,

My name is Jhone Hule, and I am writing to express my full support for my mother, Torri Huske, in her application for immigration. Over the years, my mother has been a source of immense support, both emotionally and practically, not only to me but also to our entire family. She has always put others before herself, and her commitment to her family and community is admirable.

Torri has played an essential role in raising her grandchildren, providing them with a loving and nurturing environment. Her guidance and support have been instrumental in their growth and development. Beyond her contributions to our family, she has also been actively involved in community activities, such as volunteering at local shelters and participating in neighborhood events to support those in need. Her generosity and dedication to helping others have made her a cherished member of our community.

My mother is a hardworking and dependable person who has always been willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. She has consistently demonstrated qualities of kindness, integrity, and compassion throughout her life. I am confident that, if given the opportunity to reside here, she will continue to contribute positively to the community and provide invaluable support to her family.

I fully support Torri Huske's immigration application, as I believe she will be an asset to both our family and the community at large. If you require any additional information or have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 987-654-3210 or via email at jhone.hule@example.com.

Thank you for considering my letter of support.

Sincerely,

Jhone Hule

Parents Support Letter Samples:

Implementing Positive Behavior Support Systems in Early Childhood and Elementary Settings Melissa Stormont, 2008
The book's strengths are its practical information and the specific ways of looking at expectations and developing a common language. The forms included will be of great benefit to school teams. Susan Safarik, Supervisor, Department of Special Education, Lincoln Public Schools, NE. Provides a lot of research and breaks down the processes for implementing positive behavior supports effectively in schools. Step by step directions, sample forms, and examples make the processes easy to incorporate and understand. Julia DeGarmo, Special Education Specialist, Columbus City Schools, OH. Learn how to teach and support appropriate behavior and build confidence in young children. This easy to read resource presents the Programwide Schoolwide Positive Behavioral Support (PWSBS) system, a preventive research-based approach that helps educators teach classroom behavior skills the same way they teach academic skills. The authors outline the PWSBS model, describe the core practices, and provide case examples to aid implementation. Key features of this instruction-based system include: Differing levels of intervention to meet individual student needs; Clearly stated behavioral expectations; Consistent acknowledgment of students' mastery of expectations; Systematic use of consequences for problem behavior. This user-friendly text makes the principles of PWSBS easy to apply for educators who are committed to helping young students establish positive behavioral habits that will make learning a joy for all.

Student-Led Conferencing Using Showcase Portfolios
Barbara P. Benson, Susan P. Barnett, 2005-02-15. Serve up parent teacher and student satisfaction with this recipe for blending two ingredients of success: portfolios and student-led conferences.

Getting Parents on Board Alisa Hindin, Mary Mueller, 2016-02-05. Learn how to work more effectively with K-5 parents to increase student achievement in math and literacy. Research shows that parent involvement in schools leads to higher test scores and more engaged and enthusiastic students, but it isn't always easy for teachers to bridge the gap between the home and the school. This insightful book provides helpful research-based strategies to foster meaningful home-school partnerships and overcome the challenges teachers often face when trying to build relationships with parents. You'll learn new ways to promote parent involvement at home and school. Share specific math and literacy strategies with parents to reinforce children's learning. Plan and organize effective parent conferences that foster true dialogue about a child's education. Communicate with parents about what you're teaching and how you're teaching it so they can actively contribute to their child's learning at home. Develop family nights and workshops to get parents involved in learning at school. Recommend games, activities, and projects that parents can use at home to help their children practice math and literacy skills. And much more. Each chapter is full of practical tools such as Common Core-aligned strategies, useful resources for parents, and sample parent letters that you can use to increase and improve your home-school communications. Bonus: Additional parent letters on a variety of topics are available on our website www.routledge.com/9781138998698 to help you keep parents connected throughout the year.
