Youth Culture and Identity in Northern Thailand Anjalee Cohen, 2020-06-02 Youth Culture and Identity in Northern Thailand examines how young people in urban Chiang Mai construct an identity at the intersection of global capitalism state ideologies and local culture Drawing on over 15 years of ethnographic research the book explores the impact of rapid urbanisation and modernisation on contemporary Thai youth focusing on conspicuous youth subcultures drug use especially methamphetamine use and violent youth gangs Anjalee Cohen shows how young Thai people construct a specific youth identity through consumerism and symbolic boundaries in particular through enduring rural urban distinctions The suggestion is that the formation of subcultures and deviant youth practices such as drug use and violence are not necessarily forms of resistance against the dominant culture nor a pathological response to dramatic social change as typically understood in academic and public discourse Rather Cohen argues that such practices are attempts to fit in and stick out in an anonymous urban environment This volume is relevant to scholars in Thai Studies Southeast Asian Studies Anthropology Sociology Urban Studies and Development Studies particularly those with an interest in youth drugs and gangs
