Women's Lives around the World Susan M. Shaw, Nancy Staton Barbour, Patti Duncan Ph.D., Kryn Freehling-Burton Ph.D., Jane Nichols, 2018-01-04 Providing an in depth look at the lives of women and girls in approximately 150 countries this multivolume reference set offers readers transnational and postcolonial analysis of the many issues that are critical to the success of women and girls For millennia women around the world have shouldered the responsibility of caring for their families But in recent decades women have emerged as a major part of the global workforce balancing careers and family life How did this change happen And how are societies in developing countries responding and adapting to women s newer roles in society This four volume encyclopedia examines the lives of women around the world with coverage that includes the education of girls and teens the key roles women play in their families careers religions and cultures how issues for women intersect with colonialism transnationalism feminism and established norms of power and control Organized geographically each volume presents detailed entries about the lives of women in particular countries Additionally each volume offers sidebars that spotlight topics related to women and girls in specific regions or focus on individual women s lives and contributions Primary source documents include sections of countries constitutions that are relevant to women and girls United Nations resolutions and national resolutions regarding women and girls and religious statements and proclamations about women and girls The organization of the set enables readers to take an in depth look at individual countries as well as to make comparisons across countries Companion Reader on Violence Against Women Claire M. Renzetti, Jeffrey L. Edleson, Raquel Kennedy Bergen, 2011-04-26 The Companion Reader on Violence Against Women complements and parallels the new edition of Renzetti Sourcebook on Violence Against Women The first part contains four articles relating to theoretical and methodological issues in researching violence against women The second part is on types of violence against women and the third part is on prevention and direct intervention Each article has commentary and discussion questions to add an element of critical thinking Trafficking in Persons Report ,2008 Chasing Wrongs and Rights Elaine Pearson, 2022-09-07 The Australia Director at Human Rights Watch shares her experiences defending human rights from human trafficking in Nepal to the drug war in the Philippines to treatment of detainees in Papua New Guinea and in Australia offering an extremely involving personal account of how far we ve come and how far we ve got to go Growing up in Perth Elaine Pearson always dreamt of the wider world Her British father and Singaporean Chinese mother meant that her family extended beyond our shores but it wasn t until later in life that she fully understood how her professional calling might have been influenced by personal history she learned that her beloved maternal grandmother had been sold to an opera troupe as a child to save the family from starvation As soon as she could Elaine followed her interest in women s rights and people trafficking interviewing sex workers and victims of trafficking on the streets of Bangkok and Amsterdam s red light district Her experiences in Nepal and Nigeria profoundly shaped her understanding of how governments and NGOs need to protect the rights of victims as well as how poverty corruption and war drive trafficking in the first place Elaine s story takes us on a panoramic survey of human rights across the world into the UN committee rooms of New York and Geneva as well as to the front lines of Sri Lanka s search for those who disappeared in the country s civil war examining death squad killings on the Philippines island of Mindanao and the detention of asylum seekers in Papua New Guinea And her work on the appalling treatment of prisoners many of whom are Aboriginal vividly demonstrates that human rights abuses are something that happens at home as well as out in that wider world In exploring human rights abuses and governments failure to address them Chasing Wrongs and Rights sometimes shows humanity at its worst Just as often though we see people at their best compassionate resilient determined Deeply informative and inspiring Elaine Pearson s story will leave you understanding how much needs to change and how individuals can make a difference
