Women in Relationships with Bisexual Men Maria Pallotta-Chiarolli, 2016-03-08 Framed by a comprehensive review of international research literature and film this book is an intimate journey into the experiences and insights of 79 Australian women in relationships with bisexual men It takes us into the daily lives sexual intimacies and families of MOREs mixed orientation relationships that span the gamut from extremely oppressive experiences with bi misogynist men to extremely liberating with bi profeminist men Aged 19 to 65 the women are in monogamous open and polyamorous relationships with bisexual identifying and or bisexual behaving men The women themselves are bisexual lesbian heterosexual while others refuse to categorize their own sexualities The book addresses the discovery or disclosure of the man s bisexuality how the relationships work and where they flounder how the partners negotiate and establish new rules and boundaries to maintain their relationship and the impact of class rural urban setting ethnicity indigeneity race religion and education on these relationships But this book isn t only about MOREs The research revelations and reflections in this book tell us much about current and shifting global constructions and understandings of intimate relationships sexual desires and love and the socio cultural representations and labeling of genders and sexualities

After Difference Paolo Heywood, 2018-02-19 Queer activism and anthropology are both fundamentally concerned with the concept of difference Yet they are so in fundamentally different ways The Italian queer activists in this book value difference as something that must be produced in opposition to the identity politics they find around them Conversely anthropologists find difference in the world around them and seek to produce an identity between anthropological theory and the ethnographic material it elucidates This book describes problems faced by an activist politics of difference and issues concerning the identity of anthropological reflection itself connecting two conceptions of difference whilst simultaneously holding them apart

Warrior Love Roger King, 2014 Author Roger King asks a question we may find truly challenging Could humanity make a huge shift in consciousness and realize we are more naturally polyamorous than monogamous In this narrative a vulnerable story emerges when Roger and his partner separate With heartfelt anger love and wisdom Roger unveils his inner secret admitting he is a polyamorous man he loves more than one woman Roger writes with disarming honesty and offers insights that can help men and women become open and receptive to love without fear The message is simple not always easy You can change your thoughts with radical honesty and change your life Men Are you willing to love yourself and make the world safer for us to love each other Women Can you trust men with your love Can we learn to replace jealousy of all types with unconditional love Can war and terrorism stop and all types of slavery cease Salvation lies in all of us waking up and learning to love who we truly are If a male version of Louise Hay exists Roger is it Isabelle P Walker Lefebvre Heal Your Life facilitator Roger walks his talk and it s so easy to be real around him Sam Hardy business owner Who would be fearful critical or jealous of you if you changed by loving yourself and then shining that love and the powerful miracle within you to create a whole new way of being and living

Love: A Very Short Introduction Ronald de Sousa, 2015-01-08 Although there are many kinds of love erotic love has been celebrated in art and poetry as life s most rewarding and exalting experience worth living and dying for and bringing out the best in ourselves And yet it has excused and even been thought to justify the most reprehensible crimes Why should this be This Very Short Introduction explores this and other puzzling questions Do we love someone for their virtue their beauty or their moral or other qualities Are love s characteristic desires altruistic or selfish Are there duties of love What do the sciences neuroscience evolutionary and social psychology and anthropology tell us about love Many of the answers we give to such questions are determined not so much by the facts of human nature as by the ideology of love Ronald de Sousa considers some of the many paradoxes raised by love looking at the different kinds of love affections affiliation philia storage agape but focusses on eros or romantic love He considers whether our conventional beliefs about love and sex are deeply irrational and argues that alternative conceptions of love and sex although hard to formulate and live by may be worth striving for
