Selves in Question Judith Lutge Coullie, Stephan Meyer, Thengani H. Ngwenya, Thomas Olver, 2006-05-31 Wide ranging and engaging Selves in Question considers the various ways in which auto biographical accounts situate and question the self in contemporary southern Africa. The twenty seven interviews presented here consider both the ontological status and the representation of the self. They remind us that the self is constantly under construction in webs of interlocution and that its status and representation are always in question. The contributors therefore look at ways in which auto biographical practices contribute to placing understanding and troubling the self and selves in postcolonies in the current global constellation. They examine topics such as the contexts conducive to production processes the contents and forms of auto biographical accounts and finally their impact on the producers and the audience. In doing so they map out a multitude of variables including the specific historical juncture geo political locations social positions cultures languages generations and genders in their relations to auto biographical practices. Those interviewed include the famous and the hardly known women and men writers and performers who communicate in a variety of languages Afrikaans English Xhosa isiZulu Sesotho and Yiddish. An extensive introduction offers a general framework on the contestation of self through auto biography a historical overview of auto biographical representation in South Africa up to the present time an outline of theoretical and thematic issues at stake in southern Africa auto biography and extensive primary and secondary biographies. Power and Ideology in South African Translation Maricel Botha, 2020-11-21 This book provides a social interpretation of written South African translation history from the seventeenth century to the present considering how trends involving various languages have reflected ideologies and unequal power relations and focusing attention on translation's often hidden social operation. Translation is investigated in relation to colonial mercantilism scientific knowledge of extraction Christian missionary conversion Islamic education various nationalisms apartheid oppression and the anti apartheid struggle neoliberalism exclusion and post apartheid social transformation by employing Niklas Luhmann's social systems theory. This book will be an essential resource for scholars graduate students and general readers who are interested in or work on the history and practice of translation and its cultural agents in the South African context. Like Family Ena Jansen, 2019-04-01 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa. More than a million black South African women are domestic workers. Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include Andr Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Es kia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library, 1988 Translation and the Construction of Identity Juliane House, Nicole Baumgarten, M. Picture Books about the Great War Martin C. Kerby,Denise Burkhard,Alison Bedford,Marion Gymnich,Margaret M. Baguley,2025-09-30 This book is grounded in the belief that every nation had its own Great War and that children s picture books are an important barometer of each country s national approach To explore the depiction of the Great War in modern Australian British and French children s picture books where this historical event is reimaged in different ways as a futile conflict as a painful victory and as part of one country s founding mythology this book uses the concept of the hero s journey as an underlying framework It claims that this monomythic pattern as developed by Joseph Campbell and modified by Christopher Vogler not only informs all picture books selected for this project but can also be used to highlight the extent to which modern children s picture book authors and illustrators conform to their respective nation s cultural memory It further maintains that the specific historical context of the Great War in these children s picture books can be used to identify a variant of the hero s journey the ordinary soldier s journey This analysis of children s picture books about the Great War through the lens of Campbell s hero s journey will be of interest to both students and researchers in the fields of children s
