

Eagle Scout Recommendation Letter

To Whom It May Concern,

It is a source of great pride and joy to compose this Eagle Scout letter of recommendation my dear friend Mark Sheridan. I have known Mr. Sheridan for the past seven years, as he is a good friend of my nephew in school and we live in the same neighborhood.

Mr. Sheridan is a reputable, reliable and trustworthy person, as evidenced by the manner in which he lives his life. He carries out his daily activities diligently and with such honesty and takes pride in his work. He is known as a man of his word; a person of integrity. Mr. Sheridan is not one to turn his back on a neighbor in need.

I believe that he is an eligible candidate for an Eagle Scout since he lives his life in accordance with the principles set by the Eagle Scout.

Rest assured that the contents of this letter was kept strictly confidential and created for the eyes only of the members of the Eagle Scout Board of Review. Neither are the contents of the letter discussed with the candidate before or after the time that of completion.

Sincerely,

Mr. George Florsheim

The Radioactive Boy Scout Ken Silverstein,2005-01-11 Growing up in suburban Detroit David Hahn was fascinated by science While he was working on his Atomic Energy badge for the Boy Scouts David s obsessive attention turned to nuclear energy Throwing caution to the wind he plunged into a new project building a model nuclear reactor in his backyard garden shed Posing as a physics professor David solicited information on reactor design from the U S government and from industry experts Following blueprints he found in an outdated physics textbook David cobbled together a crude device that threw off toxic levels of radiation His wholly unsupervised project finally sparked an environmental emergency that put his town s forty thousand suburbanites at risk The EPA ended up burying his lab at a radioactive dumpsite in Utah This offbeat account of ambition and ultimately hubris has the narrative energy of a first rate thriller

Writing Home Eli Goldblatt,2012-04-12 In this engrossing memoir poet and literacy scholar Eli Goldblatt shares the intimate ways reading and writing influenced the first thirty years of his life in the classroom but mostly outside it Writing Home A Literacy Autobiography traces Goldblatt s search for home and his growing recognition that only through his writing life can he fully contextualize the world he inhabits Goldblatt connects his educational journey as a poet and a teacher to his conception of literacy and assesses his intellectual emotional and political development through undergraduate and postgraduate experiences alongside the social imperatives of the era He explores his decision to leave medical school after he realized that he could not compartmentalize work and creative life or follow in his surgeon father s footsteps A brief first marriage rearranged his understanding of gender and sexuality and a job teaching in an innercity school initiated him into racial politics Literacy became a dramatic social reality when he witnessed the start of the national literacy campaign in postrevolutionary Nicaragua and spent two months finding his bearings while writing poetry in Mexico City Goldblatt presents a thoughtful and exquisitely crafted narrative of his life to illustrate that literacy exists at the intersection of individual and social life and is practiced in relationship to others While the concept of literacy autobiography is a common assignment in undergraduate and graduate writing courses few books model the exercise Writing Home helps fill that void and with Goldblatt s emphasis on out of school literacy fosters an understanding of literacy as a social practice
