John G. Merritt, Allen Satterlee

Sa Army 2015 Form:

South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Antonio Garcia, 2018-08-17 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade FIB as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo MONUSCO tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions What was more significant was that sub Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB South Africa Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIBs objectives This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations In this undertaking a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations Furthermore there are sections on operational constructs capstone and operating concepts doctrine and structural elements as well a section on mine action This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges

Intra-Africa Migrations Innocent Moyo, Jussi P. Laine, Christopher Changwe Nshimbi, 2021-02-21 This book discusses regional and continental integration in Africa by examining the management of migration across the continent It examines borders and securitisation of migration and the challenges and opportunities that arise out of reconfigured continental demographics The book offers insights on intra Africa migrations and highlights how intra continental migration creates socio economic and cultural borders It explores how these borders beyond the physical boundaries of states including the Berlin Conference constructed borders create cultural divides challenges for economic integration and cross border security and irregular migration patterns While the movement of economic goods is valued for regional economic integration the mobility of people is seen as a threat This approach to migration contradicts the intentions of true integration and development and triggers negative responses such as xenophobia that cannot be addressed by simply managing the physical border and allowing free movement This book engages in a pivotal discussion of these issues which are hitherto missing in African border studies by demonstrating the ubiquity and overreaching influence of various kinds of borders on the African continent With multidisciplinary contributions that provide an in depth understanding of intra Africa migrations and strategies for enhanced migration management this book will be a useful resource for scholars and students studying geography politics security studies development studies African studies and sociology

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country s new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa s changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world

New Forms of Human Trafficking Anabela Miranda Rodrigues, Maria João Guia, 2024-03-01 This book analyses new forms of human trafficking taking into account the transposition of the Directive 2011/36/EU which sets out minimum standards to be applied throughout the European Union in preventing and combating trafficking in human beings and protecting its victims Sexual exploitation of trafficked persons is at its highest rate After COVID 19 new forms of sexual exploitation have been identified specifically in the Global South The book analyses new forms of exploitation used by traffickers to coerce victims Combining the perspectives of academic researchers with those of highly skilled professionals from governmental institutions this book is a unique contribution promoting collaboration in preventing and combating human trafficking crime and in raising awareness of this ongoing problem

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa. More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement. The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left. Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles. The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance. University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution. This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt. Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education. In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt.

Historical Dictionary of The Salvation Army John G. Merritt, Allen

Satterlee, 2017-10-06 The Salvation Army is an integral part of the Christian Church although distinctive in government and practice. The Army's doctrine follows the mainstream of Christian belief and its articles of faith emphasize God's saving purposes. Its objects are the advancement of the Christian religion of education the relief of poverty and other charitable objects beneficial to society or the community of mankind as a whole. The Salvation Army was founded in London in 1865 by William Booth its first General and has continued growing ever since. In 2015 it celebrated its 150th anniversary and today it has a presence in 127 countries. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of The Salvation Army contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on its leaders personalities events facts movements and beliefs of The Salvation Army. This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about The Salvation Army.

Child Soldiers Dr. U C Jha, 2018-01-01

As many as fifty non state armed groups NSAGs in countries such as Afghanistan Colombia the Democratic Republic of Congo India Iraq Israel Palestine Libya Mali Pakistan the Philippines Somalia South Sudan Syria Thailand and Yemen are engaged in the recruitment and use of children in armed conflict. In Somalia South Sudan Syria and Yemen the situation continues to be perilous with many hundreds of children recruited used killed and maimed. Children have been used by the NSAGs as executioners and suicide bombers. By an estimate there are 300 000 350 000 child soldiers worldwide and the alarming trend continues to grow. According to the United Nations there has been a fivefold increase in the number of children recruited in a few ongoing armed conflicts. This book gives an up to date and comprehensive analysis of the recruitment and use of child soldiers worldwide and examines the inadequacy of international institutions and laws in protecting children It is an invaluable resource for anyone interested or working in the field of protecting children teachers students lawyers government officials military and police personnel researchers and human rights activists General Regulations for the Army United States. Department of the Army,1962 Public Art in South Africa Kim Miller,Brenda Schmahmann,2017-10-16 How does South Africa deal with public art from its years of colonialism and apartheid How do new monuments address fraught histories and commemorate heroes of the struggle Across South Africa statues commemorating figures such as Cecil Rhodes have provoked heated protests while new works commemorating icons of the liberation struggle have also sometimes proved contentious In this lively volume Kim Miller Brenda Schmahmann and an international group of contributors explore how works in the public domain in South Africa serve as a forum in which important debates about race gender identity and nationhood play out Examining statues and memorials as well as performance billboards and other temporal modes of communication the authors of these essays consider the implications of not only the exposure but also erasure of events and icons from the public domain Revealing how public visual expressions articulate histories and memories they explore how such works may serve as a forum in which tensions surrounding race gender identity or nationhood play out Rethinking Humanitarian Intervention in the 21st Century Aiden Warren,2017-06-02 Since the end of the Cold War humanitarian interventions have continued to evolve and respond to a wide range of political crises These insightful essays focus on the challenges associated with interventions when facing conflict and human rights violations unmitigated systematic violence state re building human mobility and dislocation Each chapter is linked to the rest through three defining themes that permeate the book the evolution of humanitarian interventions in a global era the limits of sovereignty and the ethics of interventions and the politics of post intervention re building and humanitarian engagement The authors incorporate a variety of case studies including Kosovo Timor Leste Syria Libya and Iraq and examine the complexity of interventions across their different dimensions including relevant doctrines such as R2P Use of Force and Human Security South Africa's Defence Industry Greg Mills,Martin Edmonds,2001 South African Army Vision 2020 Len Le Roux,2007 Counter-Insurgency in Nigeria Akali Omeni,2017-09-08 This book offers a detailed examination of the counter insurgency operations undertaken by the Nigerian military against Boko Haram between 2011 and 2017 Based on extensive fieldwork conducted with military units in Nigeria Counter Insurgency in Nigeria has two main aims First it seeks to provide an understanding of the Nigerian military s internal role a role that today as a result of internal threats pivots towards counter insurgency The book illustrates how organizational culture historical experience institutions and doctrine are critical to understanding the Nigerian military and its attitudes and actions against the threat of civil disobedience today and in the past The second aim of the book is to examine the Nigerian military campaign against Boko Haram insurgents specifically plans and operations between June 2011 and April 2017 Within this second theme emphasis is placed on the idea of battlefield innovation and the reorganization within the Nigerian military since 2013 as the Nigerian Army and Air Force recalibrated themselves for COIN warfare A certain mystique has surrounded the technicalities of COIN operations by the Army against Boko Haram and this book aims to disperse that veil of secrecy Furthermore the work s analysis of the air force s role in counter insurgency is unprecedented within the literature on military warfare in Nigeria This book will be of great interest to students of military studies counter insurgency counter terrorism African politics and security studies in general

Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements Jocelyn Alexander,JoAnn McGregor,Blessing-Miles Tendi,2020-05-21 Transnational Histories of Southern Africa s Liberation Movements offers new perspectives on southern Africa s wars of national liberation drawing on extensive oral historical and archival research Assuming neither the primacy of nationalist loyalties as they exist today nor any single path to liberation the book unpicks any notion of a straightforward imposition of Cold War ideologies or strategic interests on liberation wars This approach adds new dimensions to the rich literatures on the Global Cold War and on solidarity movements The contributors trace the ways that ideas and practices were made adopted and circulated through time and space through a focus on African soldiers politicians and diplomats The book also asks what motivated the men and women who crossed borders to join liberation movements how Cold War influences were acted upon interpreted and used and why certain moments venues and relations took on exaggerated importance The connections among liberation movements between them and their hosts and across an extraordinarily diverse set of external actors reveal surprising exchanges and lasting legacies that have too often been obscured by the assertion of monolithic national histories Tracing an extraordinarily diverse set of interactions and exchanges Transnational Histories of Southern Africa s Liberation Movements will be of great interest to scholars of Southern Africa Transnational History the Cold War and African Politics The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies

The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces Evert Kleynhans, Marco Wyss, 2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent s resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation s ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turns sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent s countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations

South Yemen's Independence Struggle Anne-Linda Amira Augustin, 2021-11-30 A bold firsthand account of one of the persistent Arab uprisings in Yemen At its beginning in 2007 the Southern Movement in South Yemen was a loose merger of different people most of them former army personnel and state employees of the People s Democratic Republic of Yemen PDRY who were forced from their jobs after the war in 1994 only four years after the unification between the PDRY and the Yemen Arab Republic This bold ethnographic account of a persistent Arab uprising in a rarely studied corner of the Middle East explores why the Southern Movement has grown so tremendously during the last decade and how it developed from a primarily social movement demanding social rights into a mass protest movement claiming independence for a state that had long vanished from the world map Anne Linda Amira Augustin asks why so many young people born after 1990 joined the movement and demanded the re establishment of a state that they had never themselves experienced At the core of South Yemeni resistance lies the transmission from generation to generation of a dominant counternarrative which may be seen as the continuation and rehabilitation of the PDRY's national narrative This narrative amplified through everyday communication in families and neighborhoods but also by media makers journalists school and university teachers civil society actors and by the movement's activists opposes the national unity narrative of the Republic of Yemen and intensifies the demands for an independent state

Learning About World War I and World War II with Arts & Crafts Paul Challen, 2014-12-15 World War I and World War II both had a huge impact on the modern world Readers explore the history of these wars in a very creative way through making crafts inspired by these events in American history Readers learn about different styles of warfare as they make their own periscopes and they learn about the role the United States played in each conflict as they make their own war posters These projects are accompanied by enlightening text including helpful sidebars and fact boxes Photographs from this period in history engage readers with each turn of the page
