Comprehensive Summary and Analysis of Sadhana The Realisation of Life by Rabindranath Tagore Rabindranath Tagore,101-01-01 Rabindranath Tagore s Sadhana The Realisation of Life is not a philosophical treatise in the traditional sense but rather a collection of essays that delve into the spiritual and philosophical underpinnings of Indian thought drawing heavily from the Upanishads and the teachings of Buddha Tagore presents these ancient ideas not as historical relics but as living principles that are profoundly relevant to the modern world He emphasizes that the essence of these teachings lies not in the literal interpretation of texts but in the spirit that unfolds through life and experience The book s central theme is the realization of life s true purpose through the understanding of one s relationship with the universe the cultivation of soul consciousness and the pursuit of unity with the infinite Tagore s perspective is deeply rooted in the Indian ethos which perceives harmony between man and nature and advocates for a spiritual vision that transcends mere scientific knowledge

A Study of Daisaku Ikeda Vinicio Busacchi,2025-09-26 This book collects texts of lectures and articles devoted to the philosophical and religious work of Daisaku Ikeda On closer inspection only when placed between philosophy of action John H Newman Maurice Blondel etc and pragmatism Jos Ortega y Gasset among others does Ikeda s general conception seem to find its appropriate and acceptable speculative placement Ikeda s work is expressive of a kind of philosophy of action This tradition presents itself as a philosophy with a strong spiritualistic brand and an explicit religious reference This is a conception that on the one hand ploughs through and broadly investigates the field of the spiritual but on the other hand reads consciousness and interprets the human in the perspective key of the emancipative will and commitment Therefore the philosophy of action is translated into philosophical practice and practical social civic engagement The Athenaeum
