

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2014 series

0510 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

Paper 2 (Reading and Writing – Extended), maximum raw mark 90

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2014 series for most Cambridge IGCSE[®], Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

The Comic Everywoman in Irish Popular Theatre Susanne Colleary, 2018-12-30 This book is a comprehensive study of comic women in performance as Irish Political Melodrama from 1890 to 1925 It maps out the performance contexts of the period such as Irish poor theatre both reflecting and complicating narratives of Irish Identity under British Rule The study investigates the melodramatic aesthetic within these contexts and goes on to analyse a selection of the melodramas by the playwrights J W Whitbread and P J Bourke In doing so the analyses makes plain the comic structures and intent that work across both character and action foregrounding comic women at the centre of the discussion Finally the book applies a practice as research dimension to the study Working through a series of workshops rehearsals and a final performance Colleary investigates comic identity and female performance through a feminist revisionist lens She ultimately argues that the formulation of the Comic Everywoman as staged Comic identity can connect beyond the theatre to her Everyday self This book is intended for those interested in theatre histories comic women and in popular performance

Alleviative Objects David Frohnapfel, 2020-12-07 The global field of contemporary art is shaped by inter racial conflicts Alleviative Objects approaches Caribbean art through intersectional entanglements and combines decolonial epistemologies with critical whiteness studies and affect theory in order to rethink Euro and U S centric perspectives on art race and class David Frohnapfel shows how progressive racism in the discourse on Haitian art recenters Whiteness by performing benign innocent and heroic identifications with the artist group Atis Rezistans While the study turns critically towards Whiteness it also turns away from it and towards the compelling contributions of Haitian curators and artists to the decentralization of contemporary art

Focus On: 100 Most Popular English Songwriters Wikipedia contributors, Transcending Self and Other Through Akogare [Desire] Chisato Nonaka, 2018-09-26 The Japanese concept of akogare has become well known in TESOL related literature in recent years usually in the context of interracial sexual desire In this far reaching new study of the internationalization of Japanese Higher Education Chisato Nonaka uses akogare as both an analytical lens and the object of enquiry and ultimately reconceptualises it as the creation of a space where individuals negotiate and transcend their ethnic national racial gender or linguistic identities The book innovatively engages with the often controversial binary of Japanese non Japanese and demonstrates how Japan often thought of as a homogenous nation may be at a critical crossroads where long held assumptions about a singular Japanese identity no longer hold true The book has profound implications for how internationalization can mean more than just the use of English

The Literature of Waste S. Morrison, 2015-06-03 Tracing material and metaphoric waste through the Western canon ranging from Beowulf to Samuel Beckett Susan Signe Morrison disrupts traditional perceptions of waste to better understand how we theorize manage and are implicated in what is discarded and seen as garbage Engaging a wide range of disciplines Morrison addresses how the materiality of waste has been sedimented into a variety of toxic metaphors If scholars can read waste as possessing dynamic agency how might that change the ethics of refuse ing and ostracizing wasted humans A major contribution to the growing field of Waste Studies this comparative and theoretically innovative book confronts the reader with the ethical urgency present in waste literature itself Voices in the Media

Gaëlle Planchenault, 2015-10-22 Verbal performances are often encountered in the media where they are used to embody characters or social archetypes Performed voices define the norm as well as the linguistic Others and by doing so circulate associated values and linguistic ideologies This book explores the idea that far from simply being exercises in verbal skill and flair performances of social ethnic or gendered voices in the media not only have the power to accomplish ideological work they are also sites of linguistic tension and negotiation Critically examining performances of French voices in the media this book raises the following questions How are repertoires of voices constructed and subsequently perpetuated in the media How do the stereotypic personae these voices contribute to build become familiar to national as well as transnational audiences How do such performed voices reproduce hegemonic ideologies of standard and non standard languages and participate in the perpetuation of social discriminations How are these performed voices commodified into cultural products of otherness that may later be reclaimed by stigmatized communities Following an innovative framework which allows for analysis of performances of varied voices and their impact in the media sphere Voices in the Media offers a new approach to the linguistics of media performance Classroom Interaction

Doris Dippold, 2015-07-22 Internationalisation has had a forceful impact on universities across the Anglophone world This book reviews what we know about interaction in the Anglophone university classroom describes the challenges students and tutors face and illustrates how they can overcome these challenges by drawing on their own experiences and practices Transnational Identities and Practices in English Language Teaching

Rashi Jain, Bedrettin Yazan, Suresh Canagarajah, 2021-07-27 The self inquiries in this edited volume exemplify the dynamism that permeates global ELT wherein English language educators and teacher educators are increasingly operating across blurred national boundaries creating new liminal spaces charting new trajectories crafting new practices and pedagogies constructing new identities and reconceptualizing ELT contexts This book captures the diverse voices of emerging and established ELT practitioners and scholars originally from and or operating in non Western contexts spanning not only the so called non Western peripheries but also peripheries created within the center when certain members are minoritized on the basis of their race language and or place of origin The chapters address a range of related issues occurring at the intersections of personal and professional identities pedagogy and classroom interactions as well as research and professional practices in liminal transnational spaces A Transnational Study of Law and Justice on TV

Peter Robson, Jennifer L Schulz, 2016-11-17 This collection examines law and justice on television in different countries around the world It provides a benchmark for further study of the nature and extent of television coverage of justice in fictional reality and documentary forms It does this by drawing on empirical work from a range of scholars in different jurisdictions Each chapter looks at the raw data of how much justice material viewers were able to access in the multi channel world of 2014

looking at three phases apprehension police adjudication lawyers and disposition prison punishment All of the authors indicate how television developed in their countries Some have extensive public service channels mixed with private media channels Financing ranges from advertising to programme sponsorship to licensing arrangements A few countries have mixtures of these Each author also examines how TV justice has developed in their own particular jurisdiction Readers will find interesting variations and thought provoking similarities There are a lot of television shows focussed on legal themes that are imported around the world The authors analyse these as well This book is a must read for anyone interested in law popular culture TV or justice and provides an important addition to the literature due to its grounding in empirical data

Race and Ethnicity in English Language Teaching Christopher Joseph Jenks, 2017-08-14 This book examines racism and racialized discourses in the ELT profession in South Korea The book is informed by a number of different critical approaches to race and discourse and the discussions contained in the chapters offer one way of exploring how the ELT profession can be understood from such perspectives Observations made are based on the understanding that racism should not be viewed as individual acts of discrimination but rather as a system of social structures While the book is principally concerned with language teaching and learning in South Korea the findings are situated in a wider discussion of race and ethnicity in the global ELT profession The book makes the following argument White normativity is an ideological commitment and a form of racialized discourse that comes from the social actions of those involved in the ELT profession this normative model or ideal standard constructs a system of racial discrimination that is founded on White privilege saviorism and neoliberalism Drawing on a wide range of data sources this book is a must read for anyone interested in critically examining ELT
