Summary of key findings for parents

This provision is outstanding

- Managers are highly reflective and extremely passionate about continually raising the quality of service to the highest possible levels. Together with their dedicated staff team, they comprehensively evaluate all aspects of the provision to identify and consider areas directly targeted improvements.
- Staff recognise exceptionally effective observation and assessment methods that focus on children's individual needs and all aspects of their learning. They know precisely the progress and attainment of every child, meaning they can spot an issue in children's learning to swiftly recognise and address.
- Staff have high expectations of what children can achieve and teach with passion, energy and joyousness. They help them to make excellent progress in their learning, including being well prepared for school.
- Staff are extremely successful in creating rich and well-resourced learning environments, both indoors and outside. Children confidently choose from the highly stimulating resources set out in a very relaxed and happy atmosphere. They have plenty of opportunities to explore and investigate indoors and outside, and their creativity is supported exceptionally well.
- Children's behaviour is superb. They show exceptional care and concern for their friends, the resources and the environment. For example, they use their hands of their provision when using shared tools, so they do not break into each other.
- Relationships with parents and other professionals are exceptionally strong. Parents feel valued by the staff in supporting their children's learning. The highly effective communication systems ensure that parents are fully aware of their children's experiences and how to continue this support when at home.
