She was born in 1969 in Iran. She grew up in Tehran where she attended Lycee Francais (a French high school). After the Iranian Revolution of 1979, her parents decided to send her to Austria for school. In Austria, she was expected to live with a friend of her parents, but the friend decided she did not want to accompany Satrapi. Marjane spent her teenage years quite recklessly, throwing herself into romantic relationships and drug use, befriending punks and anarchists. At the age of 18, she returned back to Tehran where she attended college and struggled to adjust to living under a fundamentalist regime.

Upon writing the novel, she wanted to combat the negative images of Iran, and capture the stories of ordinary Iranian people who grew up just like other children.
