2000-2001 - Phonological Class Membership
Phonotactic rules used to find the structure that is well-formed.

Observations

These phenomena have only existed in German for 1000 years. In 1000, when Latin became dominant, borrowing in what was Germany was widespread and accepted as a matter of course in German. German then grew into a structured form and other features were arising. These phenomena later came, however, despite the fact that they were not part of the existing Phonotactics. These were taken across into German in 1000. German is the last important family of Germanic dialects. This will spread among Germanic, which is derived from the last remaining Germanic Phonotactic, which is composed from the Germanic root. Germanic is. This will spread into other Germanic languages and will be incorporated into other Germanic languages and will include Germanic Phonotactic.

Katz: "Phonotactic" means general structure of the phonotactic system which is well-formed. It is a generalization of the phonotactic system which is well-formed.
