- F. Provides input for human resource decisions (e.g. compensation, recognition, etc.).

II Key Foundational Elements

The university supports flexibility in performance management systems; however, every system must include the foundational elements listed below:

- A. Performance planning – Clear performance objectives should be identified and communicated at the beginning and throughout the performance cycle. These performance objectives should align with unit and university goals and institutional values.

- D. Performance review – This is the culminating communication of the performance cycle, focusing on areas of achievement, areas for improvement and goals for the future.

- B. Classified civil service staff must receive a review prior to the end of their probationary period, whether initial or promotional, unless terminated during the initial probationary period.
