Table 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations (48 CFR) part 25 requires other compliance with the operating institution, specified as approved educational flight schools, as follows, and elsewhere. Originally, flight schools were only those approved by a body of national authorities and followed a common format and content for certification of student pilots. This changed with the acceptance of the General Aviation Manufacturers Association (GAMA) specification for a Pilot's Operating Handbook, which established a standardized format for all general aviation aircraft and universally flight schools. The term Pilot's Operating Handbook (POH) is often used in place of Flight Manual (see Table 10).
