Assyria Eckart Frahm, 2023-04-04 A new history of Assyria the ancient civilization that set the model for future empires At its height in 660 BCE the kingdom of Assyria stretched from the Mediterranean Sea to the Persian Gulf It was the first empire the world had ever seen Here historian Eckart Frahm tells the epic story of Assyria and its formative role in global history Assyria's wide ranging conquests have long been known from the Hebrew Bible and later Greek accounts But nearly two centuries of research now permit a rich picture of the Assyrians and their empire beyond the battlefield their vast libraries and monumental sculptures their elaborate trade and information networks and the crucial role played by royal women Although Assyria was crushed by rising powers in the late seventh century BCE its legacy endured from the Babylonian and Persian empires to Rome and beyond Assyria is a stunning and authoritative account of a civilization essential to understanding the ancient world and our own

Babylon Michael Seymour, 2014-08-29 Babylon for eons its very name has been a byword for luxury and wickedness By the rivers of Babylon we sat down and wept wrote the psalmist as we remembered Zion One of the greatest cities of the ancient world Babylon has been eclipsed by its own sinful reputation For two thousand years the real physical metropolis lay buried while another ghostly city lived on engorged on accounts of its own destruction More recently the site of Babylon has been the centre of major excavation yet the spectacular results of this work have done little to displace the many other fascinating ways in which the city has endured and reinvented itself in culture Saddam Hussein for one notoriously exploited the Babylonian myth to associate himself and his regime with its glorious past Why has Babylon so creatively fired the human imagination with results both good and ill Why has it been so enthralling to so many and for so long In exploring answers Michael Seymour's book ranges extensively over space and time and embraces art archaeology history and literature From Hammurabi and Nebuchadnezzar via Strabo and Diodorus to the Book of Revelation Brueghel Rembrandt Voltaire William Blake and modern interpreters like Umberto Eco Italo Calvino and Gore Vidal the author brings to light a carnival of disparate sources dominated by the powerful and intoxicating idea of depravity Yet captivating as this dark mythology was and has continued to be at its root lies a remarkable and sophisticated imperial civilization whose complex state building law making and religion dominated Mesopotamia and beyond for millennia before its incorporation into the still wider empire of the Achaemenid kings Disputation Literature in the Near East and Beyond Enrique Jiménez, Catherine

Mittermayer, 2020-08-10 Disputation literature is a type of text in which usually two non human entities such as trees animals drinks or seasons try to establish their superiority over each other by means of a series of speeches written in an elaborate flowery register As opposed to other dialogue literature in disputation texts there is no serious matter at stake only the preeminence of one of the litigants over its rival These light hearted texts are known in virtually every culture that flourished in the Middle East from Antiquity to the present day and they constitute one of the most enduring genres in world literature The present volume collects over twenty contributions on disputation literature by a diverse group of world renowned scholars From ancient Sumer to modern day Bahrain from Egyptian to Neo Aramaic including Latin French Middle English Armenian Chinese and Japanese the chapters of this book study the multiple avatars of this venerable text type Scholars and Scholarship in Late Babylonian Uruk Christine Proust, John Steele, 2019-01-08 This volume explores how scholars wrote preserved circulated and read knowledge in ancient Mesopotamia It offers an exercise in micro history that provides a case study for attempting to understand the relationship between scholars and scholarship during this time of great innovation The papers in this collection focus on tablets written in the city of Uruk in southern Babylonia These archives come from two different scholarly contexts One is a private residence inhabited during successive phases by two families of priests who were experts in ritual and medicine The other is the most important temple in Uruk during the late Achaemenid and Hellenistic periods The contributors undertake detailed studies of this material to explore the scholarly practices of individuals the connection between different scholarly genres and the exchange of knowledge between scholars in the city and scholars in other parts of Babylonia and the Greek world In addition this collection examines the archives in which the texts were found and the scribes who owned or wrote them It also considers the interconnections between different genres of knowledge and the range of activities of individual scribes In doing so it answers questions of interest not only for the study of Babylonian scholarship but also for the study of ancient Mesopotamian textual culture more generally and for the study of traditions of written knowledge in the ancient world

Enheduana Sophus Helle, 2023-03-28 The complete poems of the priestess Enheduana the world's first known author newly translated from the original Sumerian Enheduana was a high priestess and royal princess who lived in Ur in what is now southern Iraq about 2300 BCE Not only does Enheduana have the distinction of being the first author whose name we know but the poems attributed to her are hymns of great power They are a rare flash of the female voice in the often male dominated ancient world treating themes that are as relevant today as they were four thousand years ago exile social disruption the power of storytelling gender bending identities the devastation of war and the terrifying forces of nature This book is the first complete translation of her poems from the original Sumerian Sophus Helle's translations replicate the intensity and imagery of the original hymns literary time bombs that have lain buried for millennia In addition to his translations Helle provides background on the historical context in which Enheduana's poems were composed and circulated the works literary structure and themes and their reception in both the ancient and the modern world Unjustly forgotten for millennia Enheduana's poems are essential reading for anyone interested in the literary history of women religion the environment gender motherhood authorship and empire

Hattusili, the Hittite Prince Who Stole an Empire Trevor Bryce, 2024-10-17 This gripping biography documents the life and reign of Hattusili one of the most famous and well documented Hittite rulers Hattusili ruled over the ancient kingdom of Anatolia modern Turkey during the 2nd millennium BC and was a political rival and at the same time treaty partner of the Egyptian pharaoh Ramesses the Great Trevor Bryce offers a chronological account of Hattusili charting the rise of the Bronze Age Hittite prince from a sickly childhood to become by ruthless ambition an illegal coup and a civil war the most powerful ruler of the ancient Near East Incorporating the most up to date archaeological material including the archive of clay tablets and new information about the astonishingly small size of the Hittite capital Hattusa Bryce provides the reader with a detailed examination of Hattusili's policies and military strategies Alongside these historical accounts Bryce weaves in imaginative reconstructions of pivotal moments in the ruler's life giving you a complete picture of Hattusili's remarkable military skills and impressive political prowess

Between Two Rivers Moudhy Al-Rashid, 2025-08-12 Humanity's earliest efforts at recording and drawing meaning from history reveal how lives millennia ago were not so different from our own Thousands of years ago in a part of the world we now call ancient Mesopotamia people began writing things down for the very first time What they left behind in a vast region between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers preserves leaps in human ingenuity like the earliest depiction of a wheel and the first approximation of pi But they also capture breathtakingly intimate raw and relatable moments like a dog s paw prints as it accidentally stepped into fresh clay or the imprint of a child s teeth In Between Two Rivers historian Dr Moudhy Al Rashid reveals what these ancient people chose to record about their lives allowing us to brush hands with them millennia later We find a lullaby to soothe a baby instructions for exorcising a ghost countless receipts for beer and the messy writing of preschoolers We meet an enslaved person negotiating their freedom an astronomer tracing the movement of the planets a princess who may have created the world s first museum and a working mother struggling with the juggle in 1900 BCE Millennia ago Mesopotamians saw the world s first cities the first writing system early seeds of agriculture and groundbreaking developments in medicine and astronomy With breathtaking intimacy and grace Al Rashid brings their lives with all their anxieties aspirations and intimacies vividly close to our own
