Rongo University Reporting Day:

Peace Journalism in East Africa Fredrick Ogenga, 2019-07-01 This concise edited collection explores the practice of peace journalism in East Africa focusing specifically on the unique political and economic contexts of Uganda and Kenya The book offers a refreshing path towards transformative journalism in East Africa through imbibing pan African institutional methodological approaches and the African philosophies of Utu humanity Umoja unity and Harambee collective responsibility as news values Contributions from key academics demonstrate how media practices that are supportive of peace can prevent the escalation of conflict and promote its nonviolent resolution The chapters cumulatively represent a rich repertoire of experiences and cases that skillfully tell the story of the connections between media and peacebuilding in East Africa while also avoiding romanticizing peace journalism as an end to itself or using it as an excuse for censorship This cutting edge research book is a valuable resource for academics in journalism media studies communication peace and conflict studies and sociology

Annual Report of Activities and Financial Statements for the Financial Year ... Kenya. Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission, 2013

Misogyny across Global Media Maria B. Marron, 2021-03-01 Misogyny across Global Media argues that although women s experiences under misogyny are by no means universal patriarchal social and institutional systems facilitate gender based hostility across the globe Contributors demonstrate how systemic misogyny and power inequities are at the root of women s suffering at the hands of misogyny with consequences ranging from sexual harassment to rape and even murder This book provides an interdisciplinary overview of systemic misogyny worldwide analyzing specific cases such as the controversial Child Marriage Act in Bangladesh sexual harassment in India s Bollywood culture rape culture among military forces in Jammu and Kashmir the murder of female students in Kenya and femicide in Turkey This collection discusses how misogyny creates a clash of cultures between men and women the powerful and the oppressed and the conservative and the liberal and uncovers the evils that are perpetrated against women worldwide as a result of systemic misogyny Scholars of gender studies media studies and cultural studies will find this book particularly useful
