Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly, 1916 trade and development report, 2008 United Nations, State of the World 2010 Worldwatch Institute, 2013-07-04 Many of the environmental and social problems we face today are symptoms of a deeper systemic failing a dominant cultural paradigm that encourages living in ways that are often directly counter to the realities of a finite planet This paradigm typically referred to as consumerism has already spread to cultures around the world and has led to consumption levels that are vastly unsustainable If this pattern spreads further there will be little possibility of solving climate change or other environmental problems that are poised to dramatically disrupt human civilization It will take a sustained long term effort to redirect the traditions social movements and institutions that shape consumer cultures towards becoming cultures of sustainability These institutions include schools the media businesses and governments Bringing about a cultural shift that makes living sustainably as natural as a consumer lifestyle is today will not only address urgent crises like climate change it could also tackle other symptoms like extreme income inequity obesity and social isolation that are not typically seen as environmental problems State of the World 2010 paints a picture of what this sustainability culture could look like and how we can and already are making the shift Social Movements, 1768-2008 Charles Tilly, Lesley J. Wood, 2020-04-30 This expanded second edition of Tilly's widely acclaimed 2004 book brings this analytical history of social movements fully up to date Tilly and Wood cover such recent topics as immigrants rights new media technologies anti Olympic organizing in China new mobilizations against the Iraq War and the role of bloggers and Facebook in social movement activities Coverage of these and other recent events serve to expand further the book's seminal theorizing and conceptualization of how social movements grew from eighteenth century Europe to eventually fuel popular movements all over the world Women's Health and the World's Cities Afaf Ibrahim Meleis, Eugenie L. Birch, Susan M. Wachter, 2011-08-19 Growing urbanization affects women and men in fundamentally different ways but the relationship between gender and city environments has been ignored or misunderstood Women and men play different roles frequent different public areas and face different health risks Women suffer disproportionately from disease injury and violence because their access to resources is often more limited than that of their male counterparts Yet when women are healthy and safe so are their families and communities Urban policy makers and public health professionals need to understand how conditions in densely populated places can help or harm the well being of women in order to serve this large segment of humanity Women's Health and the World's Cities illuminates the intersection of gender health and urban environments This collection of essays examines the impact of urban living on the physical and psychological states of women and girls in Africa Asia Latin America and the United States Urban planners scholars medical practitioners and activists present original research and compelling ideas They consider the specific needs of subpopulations of urban women and evaluate strategies for designing spaces services and infrastructure in ways that promote women's health Women's Health and the World's Cities provides urban planners and public health care providers with on the ground examples of projects and policies that have changed women's lives for the better The State of the World's Children 2011, 2011-02 The State of the World's Children 2011 Adolescence An Age of Opportunity examines the global state of adolescents outlines the challenges they face in health education protection and participation and explores the risks and vulnerabilities of this pivotal stage The report highlights the singular opportunities that adolescence offers both for adolescents themselves and for the societies they live in The accumulated evidence demonstrates that investing in adolescents second decade is our best hope of breaking the intergenerational cycle of poverty and inequity and of laying the foundation for a more peaceful tolerant and equitable world An Economic Analysis of Rapid Transit in New York, 1870 - 2010 Kyle M. Kirschling, 2012 This is consistent with a substantial body of economic theory albeit not conventional neoclassical economics which frequently treats transit as a special case This conflict is linked to faulty assumptions underlying neoclassical economic theory State and Metropolitan Area Data Book, 2010 State and Metropolitan Area Data Book 2010, Development in Eastern Europe and the South Caucasus Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia, Republic of Moldova and Ukraine OECD, 2011-06-14 The studies contained in this volume demonstrate that despite the economic crisis there still is much potential in this region and that the measures that need to be taken to realise that potential are feasible and affordable Zimbos Never Die?, 2023-05-08 This book seeks to explore how the Zimbabwean society and its institutions have survived if not succumbed to continuous economic crises in the country From the 1990s Zimbabwe experienced a sustained economic decline challenged by both internal and external strains Coupled with internal mis governance and corruption the nation plunged into a political and economic crisis which culminated in the second highest world inflation rate for an economy that is not at war In the face of the harsh and continuously deteriorating economic environments Zimbabweans as individuals as well as part of institutions adopted various strategies to negotiate and survive the economic scourge Contributors include Wellington Bamu Nathaniel Chimhete Anusa Daimon Innocent Dande Sylvester Dombo Tinotenda Dube Rudo Gaidzanwa Tafara Evelyn Kombora Ushehweu Kufakurinani Bernard Kusena Eric Kushinga Makombe Albert Makochekeanwa Blessed Masawi Ivo Mhike Joseph P Mtisi Joseph Mujere Wesley Mwatwara Pius S Nyambara Tinashe Nyamunda Mark Nyandoro Takesure Taringana and Nicola Yon Mutimurefu All the Nations Under Heaven Robert W. Galvez,2011-09-08 According to the Latina health paradox Mexican immigrant women have less complicated pregnancies and more favorable birth outcomes than many other groups in spite of socioeconomic disadvantage Alyshia G lvez provides an ethnographic examination of this paradox What are the ways that Mexican immigrant women care for themselves during their pregnancies How do they decide to leave behind some of the practices they bring with them on their pathways of migration in favor of biomedical approaches to pregnancy and childbirth This book takes us from inside the halls of a busy metropolitan hospital s public prenatal clinic to the Oaxaca and Puebla states in Mexico to look at the ways Mexican women manage their pregnancies The mystery of the paradox lies perhaps not in the recipes Mexican born women have for good perinatal health but in the prenatal encounter in the United States Patient Citizens Immigrant Mothers is a migration story and a look at the ways that immigrants are received by our medical institutions and by our society West Valley
